Scripture: Psalm 51:1-10 TGN ctd. pg. 5

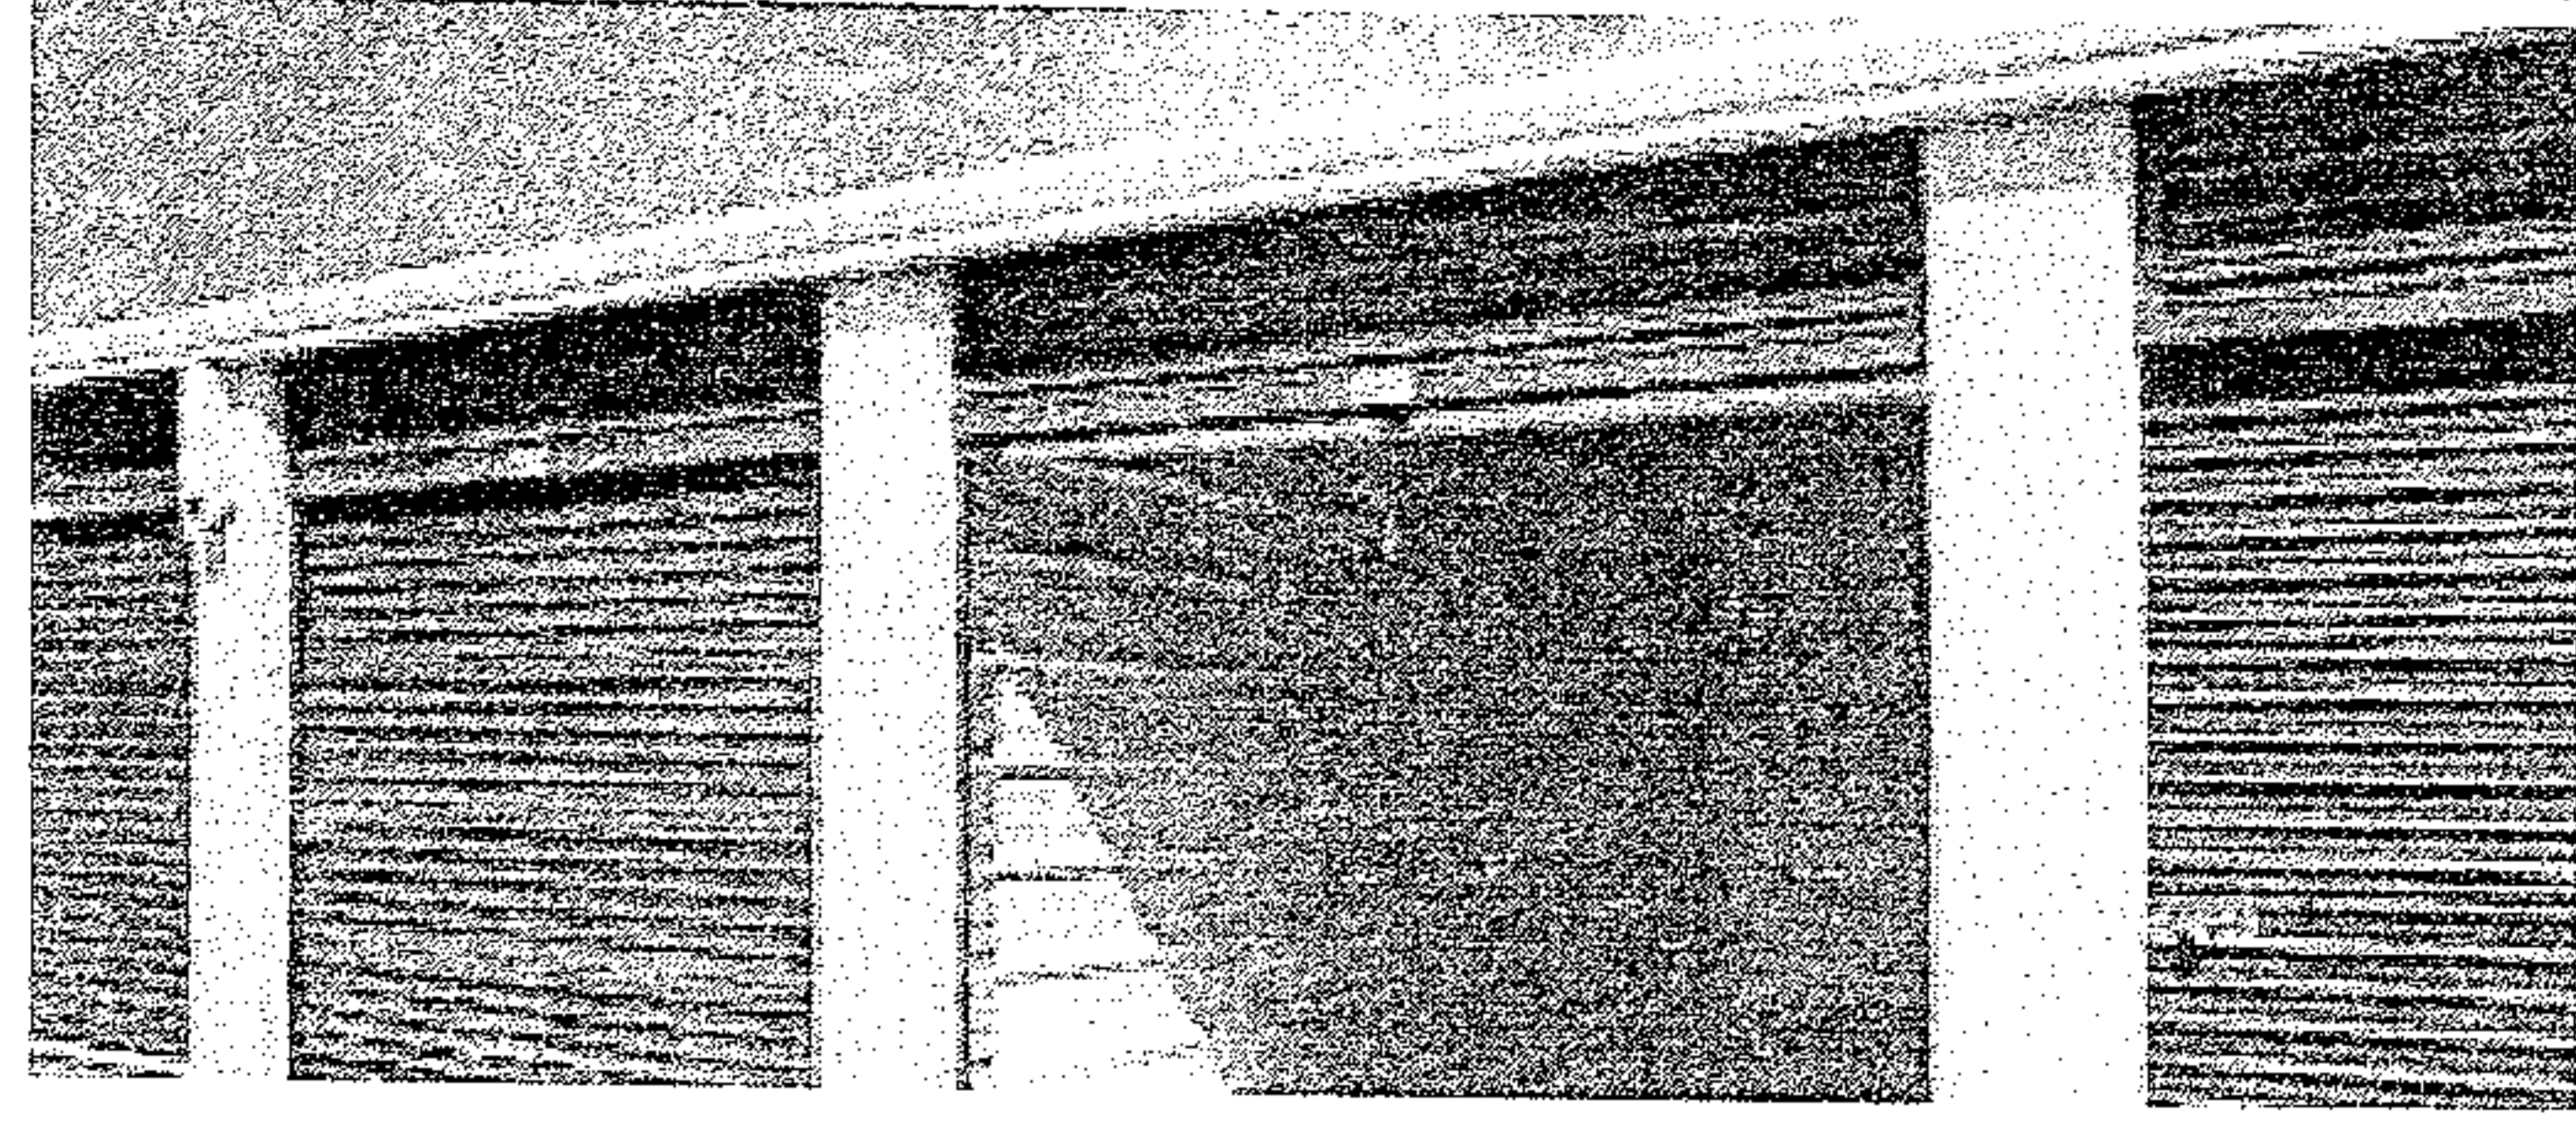

Psalm 51 is always difficult for me to read and pray. David, the author of the Psalm, uses three different words for the same thing: "my transgressions ... my iniquity ... my sin". Those words are difficult precisely because they emphasize the magnitude of personal sin.

That phrase: Magnitude of personal sin -- that's a lot of sin. This psalm is traditionally understood as King David's awareness of his behavior with Bathsheba and taining him Deputy found out that Timothy Adams has been taking some narcotic and is under the influence. The family has been watching him the past 24 hours and he has been up and down. He is angry and been tearing up his room and punching holes in the walls. He went outside and victim was with him. He was threatening to break out a window in his vehicle and then hit his father's truck. Victim was trying to stop him and a physical altercation occurred to the point that victim and their father had to hold Timothy Adams down on the ground until police arrived. his part in the death of Uriah. But this cry of confession is ours, too. In this psalm, we learn to pray to God for all those sins of which we are guilty. God's people are called to confess over and over again, called to an awareness of the magnitude of their sin so that an awareness of God's forgiveness might also be comprehended.

Prayer: God of grace, with David we confess the magnitude of our sin and pray for your forgiveness. Give us confidence and trust that our sins are wiped away and that we are cleansed and set free. Amen.

Cody Green, 21, Hwy 72 Maryville, was charged with Tampering/Fabricating with Evidence, and Simple Possession.

Deputy Kevin Dailey LCSO, observed a 1989 maroon GMC pickup that appeared to have illegal tint turn down Elm St off of Highway 95. Deputy ran the registration as the vehicle pulled into the driveway but did not shut off their lights, the registration did not come back to anything. A pass was made back through due to the unusual nature of the drivers actions where

Deputy observed it gone within minutes, contact was made thereafter at Lou Goddard at Highway 411 where Deputy came in contact with the driver who appeared nervous as he was fumbling with his wallet and trying to hide some sort of item when he handed myself his drivers license, he then handed me some rolling papers. With Mr. Riden was passenger Cody Green, neither party could explain why they were taking such a long way around to take Mr. Green home instead of driving past Deputy while he was sitting at Elm St. earlier. As Deputy had driver and Mr. Green out of the vehicle they both consented to a search of their person, as this was done they repeatedly stated they had nothing on them. While Mr. Green was taking off his socks he was hesitant however inside of his sock was a small bag of what appeared to be crystal Meth (.4 Gm) that he stated was salt. Mr. Green was taken into custody on Simple Possession and Tampering with Evidence. The driver was given a verbal warning for improper registration along with the illegal tint.
