The Good News

by: Rev. Dr. Julius McCarter

Scripture: Isaiah 9:1-4

All of creation is groaning for freedom. The yoke of many people's burdens is too much for us to carry and something must be done. For those of us who have been affected by the hegemonic death-dealing system of sin, our hearts cry out for salvation. But the good news is: God is in the liberation business! For those who have been on the wrong end of the inexcusable disparities in our world, there is freedom. The life-crushing bar across their shoulders is lifted by the one who makes all things new. As Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. put it, "The arc of the moral universe is long but it bends toward

Seizing Crime Proceeds and Compensating Victims

Forfeiture as an Effective Law Enforcement Tool

Last fall, the U.S. Attorney's Office in Vermont held a press conference and issued a press release announcing that "the government and its public and private partners have completed an agreement to convert forfeited Rutland drug houses to safe, renovated houses."

So what's the significance of that announcement? The legal forfeiture action it referred to grew out of a multi-agency law enforcement investi-

Minor

Ryan Barr, 18 Washington Pike Philadelphia, was charged with Simple Possession, Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor, Poss. of Drug Para., and Unlawful Carrying/Possession of a Weapon.

Noah Ernest, 18, Clark Street Seymour, was charged with Simple possession, and Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor.

Officer Anthony Akins LPD, witnessed a Red Dodge truck with a white light shining through on the driver side tail light. Officer could not read registration on vehicle due to mud obstructing the view. Made a traffic stop on vehicle and identified the driver as a juvenile with no license. The passengers in vehicle was Mr. Ryan Barr and Mr. Noah Ernest. Mr. Barr is also the owner of the vehicle.

Mr. Barr was asked if there was anything in the vehicle Officer's need to know about such as weapons or drugs. Officer Pesterfield and Akins, noticed a strong odor of what we believed to be Marijuana. Mr. Barr stated that there is a gun in the vehicle and that they all smoked Marijuana thirty minutes prior from traffic stop. All parties was asked to exit the vehicle due to Offi-
