Chicago man sentenced to 90 months on heroin and firearms charges

On Jan. 27, 2017, Cornelius Q. Hill, 29, of Chicago, was sentenced to 90 months in prison by the Honorable Travis R. McDonough, U.S. District Judge, for possession with intent to distribute heroin, possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime, and being a felon in possession of a firearm. Hill pleaded guilty to these charges, contained in a federal indictment, in October 2016.

According to information on file with the U.S. District Court,

Haslam: Community College Tuition-Free for All Tennesseans

Reconnect to offer last-dollar scholarship for adults without degrees to attend community college

In his seventh State of the State address to the General Assembly, Gov. Bill Haslam introduced his proposal to make Tennessee the first state in the nation to offer all Tennessee adults without a degree access to community college tuition-free – and at no cost to taxpayers.

If the Tennessee Reconnect Act is approved, Tennessee would become the first state in the nation to offer all citizens – both high school students and adults – the chance to earn a post-secondary degree or certificate free of tuition and fees.

“Just as we did with Tennessee Promise, we’re making a clear statement to families:
