investigators that he had taken the controlled substances for his own use.

Randy Davidson resigned from Cumberland County EMS on August 15, 2016. In February 2017, Davidson was indicted by the Cumberland County Grand Jury on two counts of theft under $1,000, one count of official misconduct, and one count of forgery.

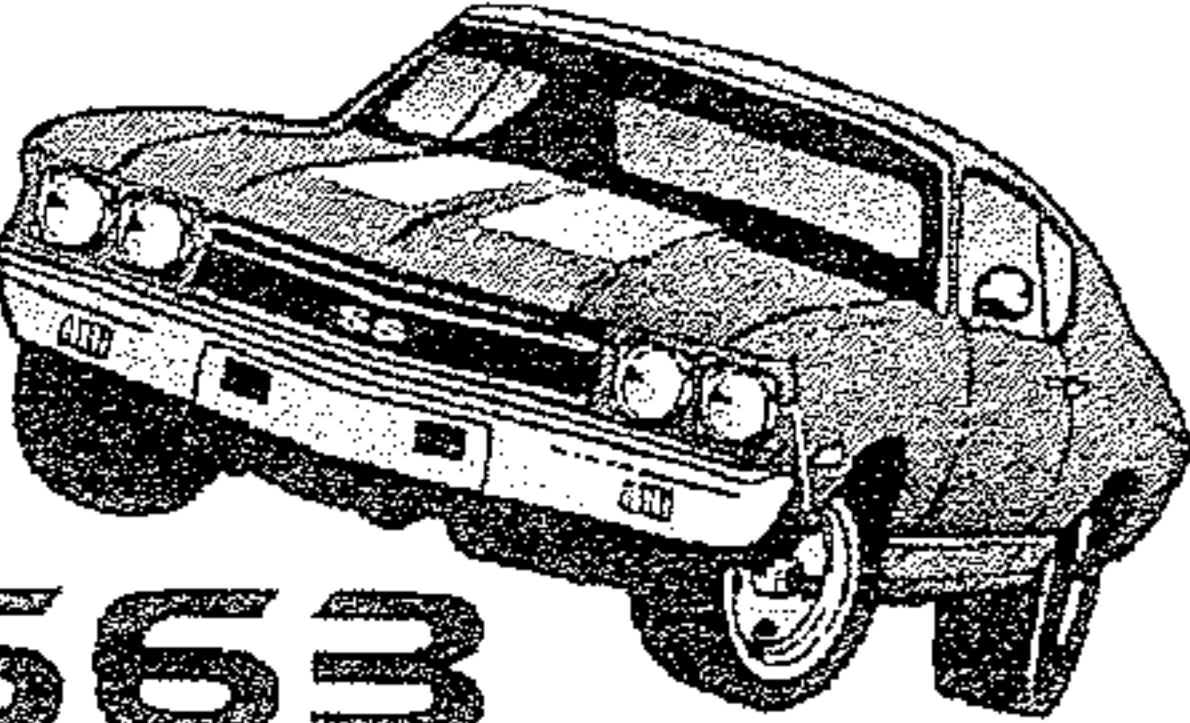

“Although this scheme was first identified by Cumberland County EMS, it went undetected for at least 20 months,” said Comptroller Justin P. Wilson. “I’m pleased to see that EMS officials are taking steps to review the forms that are used when controlled substances are administered. The signatures of the paramedic, supervisor and a witness should always be included.”
