The Good News

by: Rev. Dr. Julius McCarter

Scripture: Psalm 99
This psalm reminds us that one proper response to our Lord is trembling. We should praise and extol and worship. Holy is God! Yet how often do we, instead, hear the name of the Lord being used in vulgar conversation? Whenever I hear someone use the name "Jesus Christ" as a curse word, I whisper under my breath "loves you". For me this helps ease

Angela Mote, 28, Cook Drive Knoxville, was charged with DUI, Driving on Suspended License, and Simple Possession x2.

Deputy Lance Anderson and Kevin Kirkland LCSO, observed a maroon vehicle traveling on I-75n. The vehicle tag was insecurely fastened and swinging from the vehicle. The vehicle matched the description of a reported reckless driver. Upon traffic stop Deputy made contact with the driver Angela Mote. While speaking with the Mote Deputy noticed a strong odor of marijuana emitting from the vehicle. Mote was slow to answer question and seemed confused. Mote stated she had smoked marijuana and takes pain pills and muscle relaxers. Mote did poorly on sobriety test and placed under arrest. Mote driver license was suspended for failure to pay fines. Upon search of Mote located were two marijuana cigarettes, and Xanax in her bra area.

LPD

Timothy Jones, 36, West Lee Hwy Loudon, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. II, & III, & IV, and Driving on Revoked/Suspending License Officer with LPD, witnessed a gray BMW disobey a traffic control device at the intersection of Rose Dale Avenue and Ward Street. Officer was able to catch up to this vehicle and traffic stop it at the intersection of Cedar Street and Grove Street. Officer approached the vehicle and identified the driver as Mr. Timothy Jones. While Officer was speaking with Mr. Jones he requested his driver's license. At this time Mr. Jones handed Officer an identification only card. Officer asked Mr. Jones if he was suspended or revoked, he stated suspended. Deputy then asked Mr. Jones to exit the vehicle, while outside the vehicle Officer asked Mr. Jones if he had any firearms or illegal drugs on his person or inside the vehicle to which he stated no. Officer requested permission to search Mr. Jones which he granted. While searching Mr. Jones front left pocket Officer did find a white plastic container. Inside the container was a clear crystal like substance. Officer was able to field test this substance and it tested positive for methamphetamine. Officer's were able to weigh this plastic white plastic container and the substance inside for a total of 5 grams. Officer then placed Mr. Jones in custody and placed him inside the back of my patrol vehicle. Mr.
