Officer Jonathan Yates LPD, responded to the Peaks of Loudon, Carding Machine Rd, in reference to a male subject sitting in a silver Kia blasting the horn and yelling. Upon arrival, the defendant, Gabriel Greeson, was found occupying the vehicle in question. He was attempting to get his live in girlfriend (victim) to let him in the apartment by honking the horn and yelling which disturbed all residents of the apartment complex. What is going on in Lenoir City on Broadway Street? If you have driven downtown lately, you probably have noticed that a lot has been happening. New stores are opening up and remodeling is happening on both sides of the street as new businesses are starting to liven up Broadway Street.

I have to admit that I have lived in Lenoir City for over 14 years now and I honestly had never been in a shop downtown on Broadway Street until recently. After my Mom, Evelyn Murphy, bought The Backdoor Gallery in June, I have been spending a lot of time down there helping her at the gallery and have come to love the area and the people that I have met.

One of my latest findings has been the Wildberry Smoothie from Ugly Mug Coffee. If you haven't had one, then you are definitely missing out on a delicious treat! I have become addicted for sure and cannot resist going by there and getting one every time that I am downtown and they are open.

Another place that has won me over is Le Noir, A Belgian Southern Bistro, with their Seafood Pesto Pasta. I always enjoy great food and the atmosphere is so relaxing and inviting. The waitress is always so friendly and makes sure to take great care of you. Oh, and I cannot forget to mention the truffles! You will definitely want to take a bag of them home, because you will not regret it.

Lily Mae's Boutique is a shop just a couple of doors down from The Backdoor Gallery that I have spent a lot of time in lately. Kim and Camilla are the owners of this boutique and you won't believe all of the amazing items that they have inside their shop. They have something for everyone. You will always be greeted by one of their smiling and cheerful faces as you come in the store.

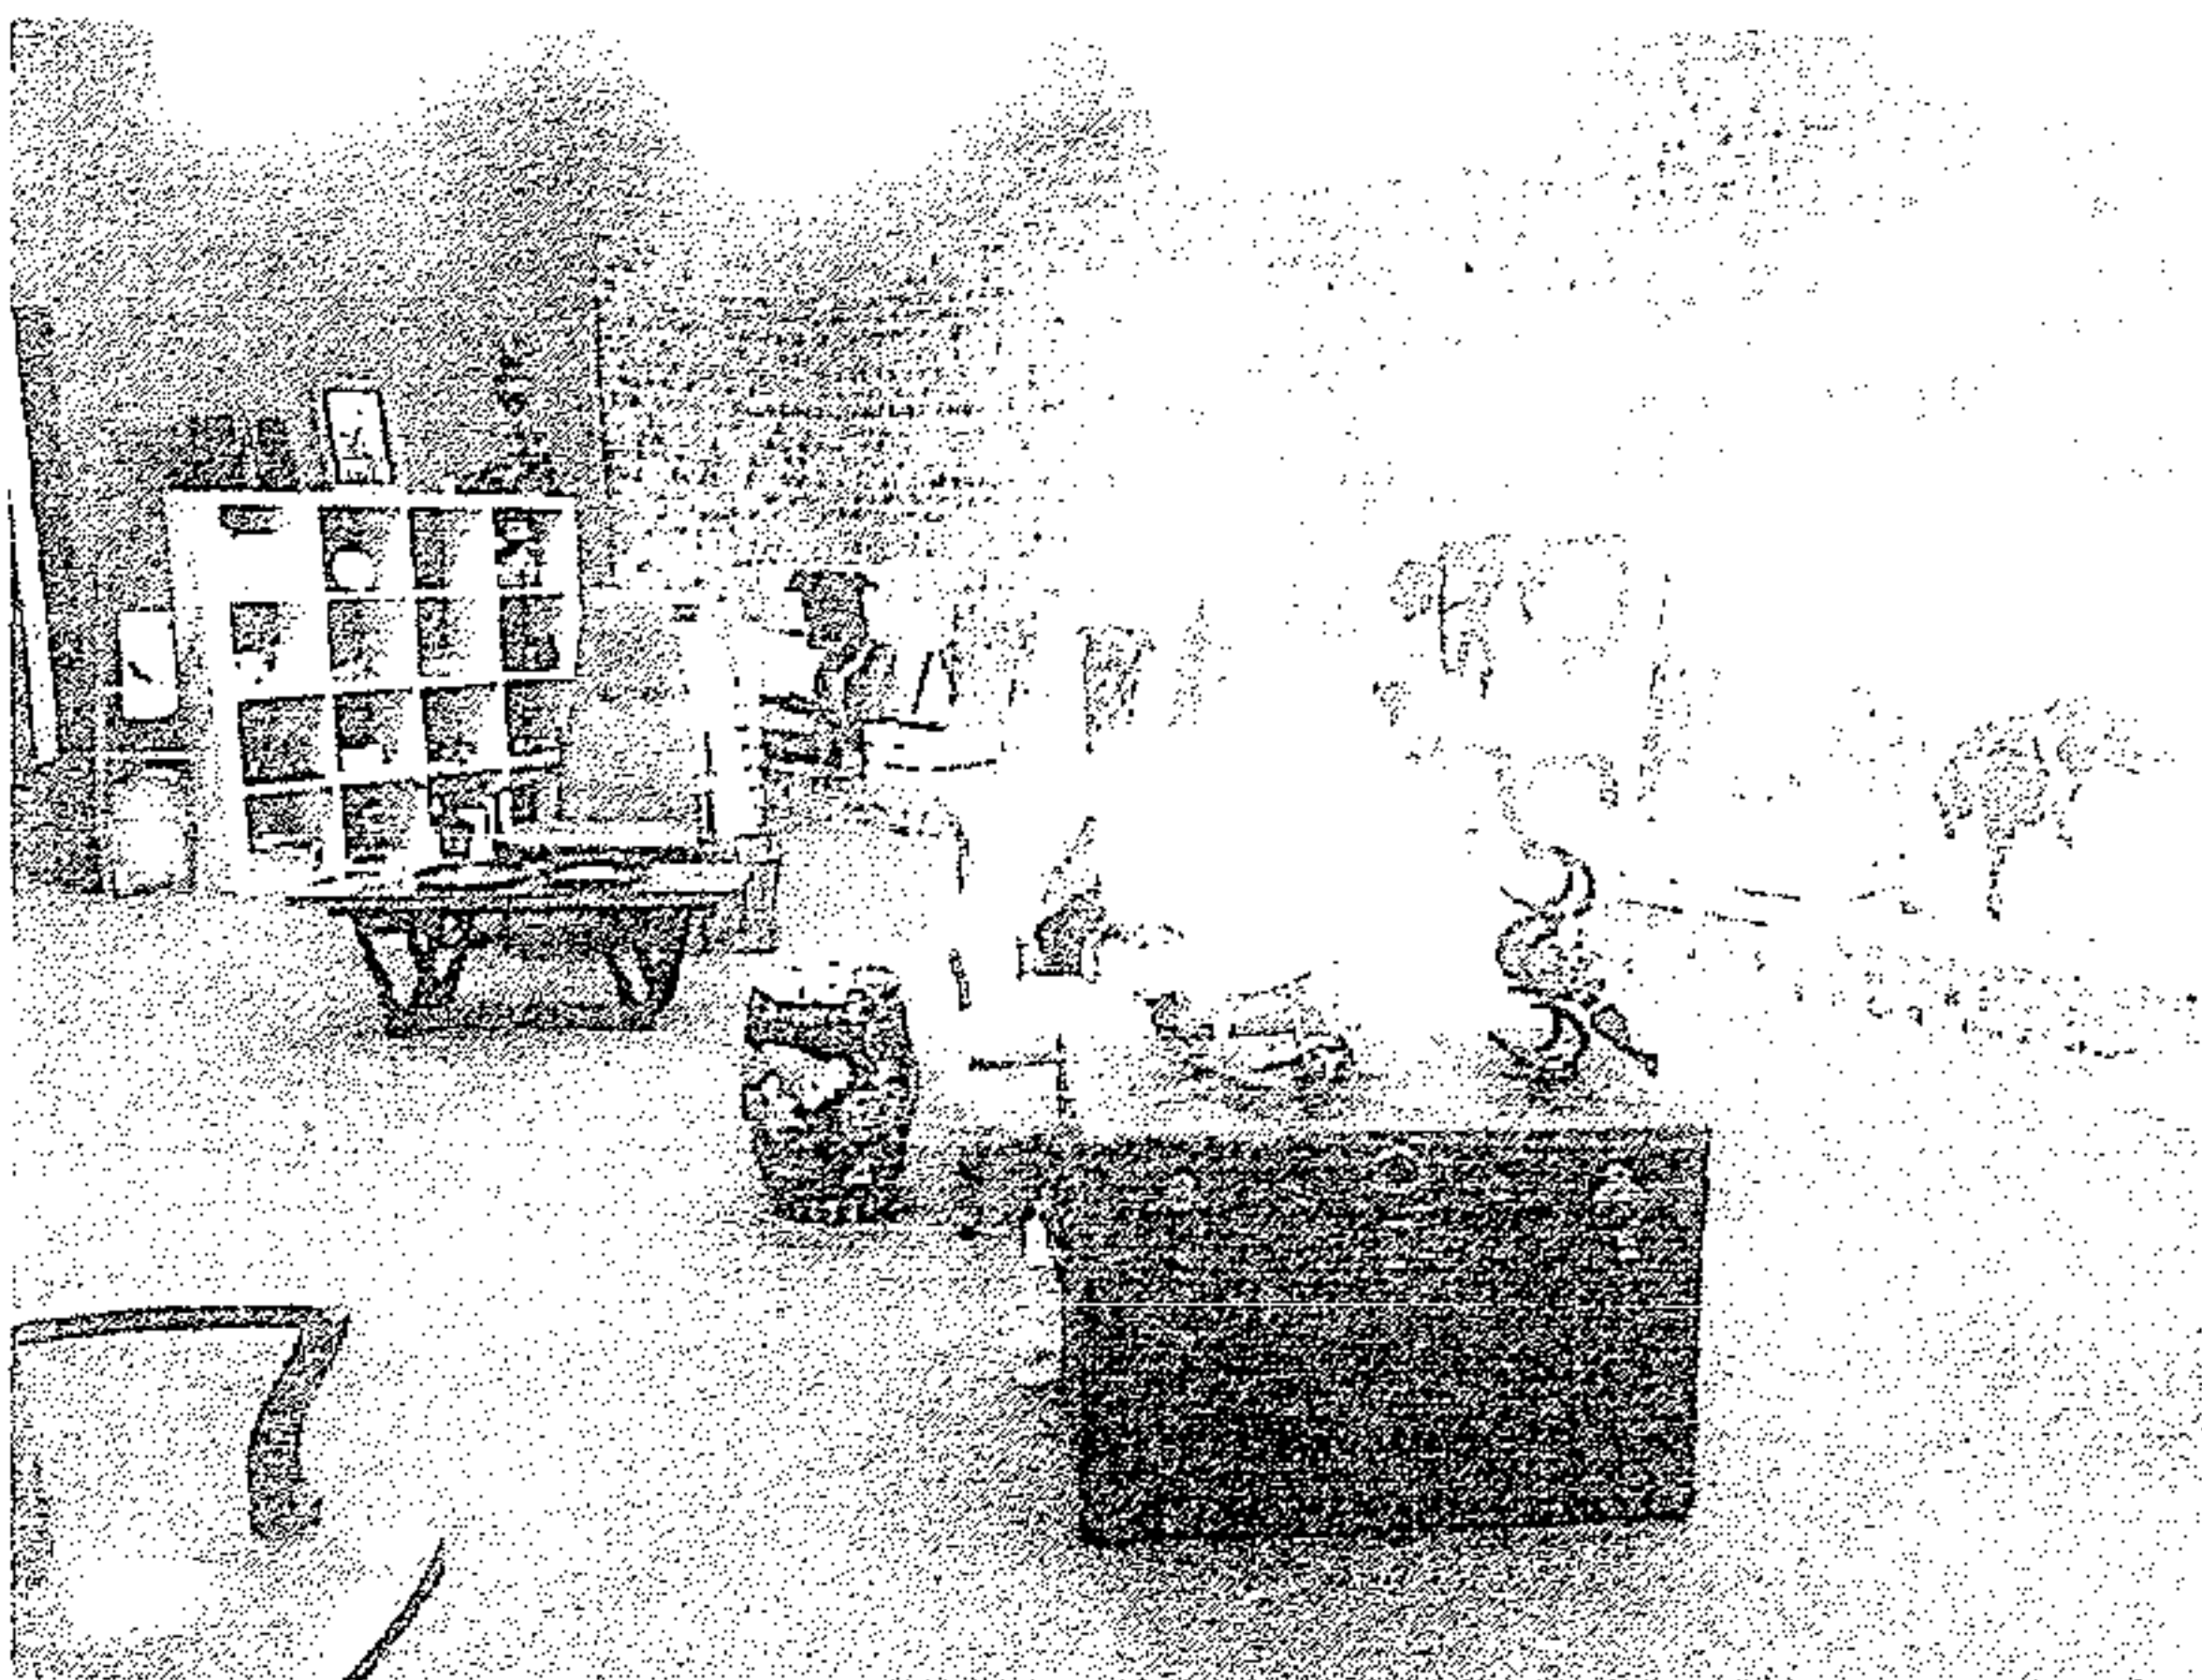

Next door to the gallery is Wilburn's Barber Shop and if you have lived in Lenoir City for any time at all, then you have heard of him. His chair usually has a person in the seat from the time he opens until he closes. If you want a great haircut, just go see him and enjoy your visit while you wait because there will always be people there to keep you company.

On the other side of the gallery you will find JW Wilburn True Value Hardware. The employees inside are always so eager to help you find just what you are looking for. I have been by there several times and found just what I needed.

I look forward to visiting more of the stores on Broadway and learning more about each one. Lenoir City on Broadway is coming alive downtown and it is very exciting. There are some wonderful events coming very soon downtown and I will be providing you updates every Monday here in The Daily Edition. I am honored to be a part of this newspaper and look forward to sharing my news about the town with you each week.
