Scheme to Steal from Crop Insurance Programs Lands Farmers, Insurance Agents in Prison

A Kentucky tobacco warehouse owner, several insurance agents and adjusters, and more than a dozen tobacco farmers have pleaded guilty to criminal charges in a widespread, multi-million-dollar scheme to defraud both federal and private crop insurance programs. In total, 23 people have been criminally charged, while another 17 people have agreed to pay civil fines or penalties.

FBI Forensic Accountant Tressa Whittington has been working this case with agents from our Louisville Field Office, the IRS, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Office of Inspector General (OIG) and Risk Management Agency (RMA) since a 2014 tip to the OIG hotline reported suspected fraud at Clay's Tobacco Warehouse in Mount Sterling, Kentucky. From that tip, the investigation rippled through farming communities in Central Kentucky. Whittington said some of

Neglect

Tiffany Blair, 38, Homeless, was charged with Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Poss. Of Drug Para., and Child Abuse or Neglect/Endangerment.

Deputy Clay Jenkins LCSO, responded to I-75 NB 70.2 MM in reference to a juvenile calling 911 needing help.

Upon arrival, Deputy spoke with victim/juvenile who advised he exited his mothers vehicle a white Nissan Maxima on the 72 MM exit ramp due to his mother and her boyfriend snorting pills in the car.

Deputy K. Redmond LCSO, then transported the juvenile to the McDonalds 12505 Hwy 72 S due to safety concerns on the interstate. While speaking to victim at McDonalds, Deputy then observed a white Nissan Maxima pull into the parking lot driven by a female matching the description of the vehicle victim left. Deputy then made contact with the vehicle TN registration 58AH83 which was occupied by victim mother Tiffany Blair and her boyfriend. Upon speaking with Tiffany, she noticed multiple officers in the parking lot and did not approach one. She also said that she was looking for wifi but did advise that her phone is capable of calling emergency services for help in which she did not do. It was then found that Ms. Blair had a revoked license for driving under the influence, confirmed through dispatch. Deputy then asked to search the vehicle in which Ms. Blair agreed. Deputy then found a cut straw with residue inside of her purse used to ingest narcotics. Mr. Savage was then found to have an active warrant out of McMinn County. Deputy then determined that Ms. Blair did neglect her son the victim. Both subjects were then taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. All of this did occur in Loudon County, TN.

DUI

Marshall Hudson, 19, Cardwell Chapel Road Lenoir City, was charged with DUI.

Deputy Jon Sartin LCSO, was dispatched to Hines Valley Rd. Lenoir City in reference to a wreck with injury. Upon arrival Deputy observed multiple live wires on the road where a utility pole had been struck. On the side of the road was a white toyota truck on its top. Deputy made contact with the driver, Mr. Marshall Hudson, to check his welfare. Mr. Hudson had blood on his face and arms. Mr. Hudson stated only his head was hurting. While speaking with Mr. Hudson Deputy asked him how much he had to drink. Mr. Hudson originally stated two beers. After asking him again he stated he had 4 shots and 2 beers. EMS arrived on scene and began to evaluate

Mr. Hudson. Mr. Hudson was cleared by EMS and refused to go to the hospital. At that time Mr. Hudson was placed into custody for driving under the influence. Deputy then read him implied consent to which agreed to give breath. Mr. Hudson was then transported to the Loudon County jail. Mr. Hudson's first breath result was .157 at 0436 hours and second result was .140 0438 hours.

Fraud

the defendants cheated the program out of less than $10,000. Others admitted guilt in multimillion-dollar frauds.

"Whether the theft was of a few thousand dollars or millions, these individuals took advantage of the program," Whittington said. "They were stealing money from taxpayers and stealing money from the honest farmers who now pay a higher premium."

How the Fraud Worked

Whittington said the individuals involved used a number of different schemes to defraud the programs, but the most common one was carried out like this: A farmer would raise a crop of tobacco. The crop would be of good quality, but the farmer would conspire with insurance agents and adjusters to attest to the fact that the crop had been damaged by storms or pests. For this service, the insurance agents and adjusters were getting kickbacks, according to investigators.

With the report of a ruined crop, the farmer would file an insurance claim and be paid insurance money.

In the meantime, the farmer would still sell the good crop to a tobacco company. Many of the farmers had contracts with large companies to deliver regular tobacco crops. These were valuable contracts that the farmers wanted to maintain.

But because the farmer had reported a ruined crop to the insurance providers, it took additional sleight of hand and additional fraud to make the transaction with the tobacco company look legitimate. The farmers had to show that they "purchased" the tobacco they sold to the tobacco company while selling off the supposedly poor-quality tobacco they had grown.

Stop

Phillip West, 47, Cape Drive Maryville, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. VI. And Signals for Turns.

Deputy Rogers LCSO, observed a Silver Buick initiate a turn signal as it abruptly turned into his lane on Hwy 11 at Hwy 321.

After checking the registration it was confirmed the owner Mr. Phillip West had an ID-Only driving status. Deputy initiated a traffic stop in the area of Twin Lakes Rd and made contact with the driver Mr. West.

According to the report, Mr. West stated he was heading to a room at the Inn of Lenoir and that he did not have a valid driver's license. After further conversation,

Mr. West stated he had a small amount of weed in the center console. Deputy did recover the bag of marijuana from the center console that field weighed 19 grams. Deputy also recovered another bag of marijuana that weighed 28 grams in the glove compartment. Mr. West originally stated his son had borrowed the car and left the marijuana, however, he eventually claimed ownership. The total amount of marijuana was 47 grams. Deputy took Mr. West into custody for Resale of Schedule VI and transported him to the Loudon County Jail. Mr. West was also cited for Failing to Signal Before Lane Change. Said did occur in Loudon County, TN.

ing or watching TV. Chances are you won't know what to do with yourself all day. Under these circumstances, the best thing to do is find a distraction. Go work out, read a thrilling book, go to a funny movie. Get your mind off your lethargy and it could well disappear.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Career and financial goals could seem completely stalled, Taurus, and this could have you depressed, frustrated, and in something of a panic. Don't fall into this trap. This isn't a permanent condition. You'll be back on track in a few days. In the meantime, be good to yourself. Go to your favorite restaurant, buy yourself a present, or spend the afternoon in a bookstore. If nothing else, you'll feel better.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

A colleague could be in a very bad mood, Gemini, and therefore not the easiest person in the world to deal with. In fact, today he or she could resist working at all, and you might feel obligated to take up the slack. Only do it if the tasks are urgent. It isn't fair to you to have to do someone else's job. Don't feel guilty if you leave it unfinished.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Plans to go away on vacation or perhaps a business trip could be put on hold today, Cancer. Events you might have been scheduled to attend could be temporarily postponed. This could leave you feeling somewhat at a loss because you'd planned to be away and now you don't know what to do with yourself in the meantime. Be your usual ingenious self and you'll find something! Go to it!

Leo 7/23-8/22

This isn't a good day to visit the racetrack, Las Vegas, or any store that sells lottery tickets. Stay away from the stock market, too, Leo. Speculation of any kind now could be risky at best and disastrous at worst. Romance is also likely to be blocked today, since you're probably feeling a bit lethargic and not very sociable. Read a good book. That's the most productive thing you could do today!

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Virgo, you're likely to want to retreat into your bedroom and slam the door today. You won't feel like talking or socializing with anyone, not even those closest to you. Too much work could have you in a state of near exhaustion and almost total burnout, which means that getting some rest is probably the best thing you could do right now. Relax now, and get yourself going again tomorrow.

Libra 9/23-10/22

This might prove to be one of those days in which it's very hard to get anything related to work or communication off the ground, Libra. You could find excuses to stop working more often than usual, particularly if it involves calling people on the phone. Don't fight it. Take care of the most urgent tasks. The world won't come to an end if you put the rest off a while.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You might have planned to make a particular purchase today, Scorpio, but a quick check of your financial situation could reveal that it would be better if you waited until your next payday. This could prove disappointing and frustrating, but look at it this way - you've waited this long for this item. It isn't urgent, so waiting a little longer certainly won't hurt. Do something else today.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

A lack of physical and mental energy as well as motivation could have you in a lethargic mood today, Sagittarius. You won't feel like doing much of anything. You might get extremely irritated at the thought of having to work in any way. It might be a good idea to go to a movie in the evening, preferably a thriller or action movie. This will get your juices flowing again.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Usually you enjoy talking with others, Capricorn, but today you won't even want to answer the phone. Your physical stamina and mental energy are low, and you could feel out of sorts. It might help if you go for a walk sometime in the afternoon. You won't want to waste your evening lying around the house. Get the endorphins going and then go to a movie. You'll soon be your old self again!

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

A group of friends might want you to go out with them today, Aquarius, but you probably won't feel up to it. Your financial situation could also require a little belt-tightening now, so you may not feel you can justify the expense. In any case, you aren't going to want to spend the evening alone. Invite a friend or love partner over to watch a movie with you.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Today you could feel full of energy and eager to get out for some exercise, Pisces, but other responsibilities might threaten to keep you from doing it. The resulting frustration could zap all your energy and put you in a lethargic mood. Don't fall into this trap! Get the most urgent tasks done and then get the exercise you need. This way, you can recoup both your physical and mental energy.
