Estimates Will Help Fill in Crime Statistics Gap Transition to NIBRS crime statistics ongoing

When the annual Crime in the United States (CIUS), 2021 data is released this fall, it will look different from previous releases. CIUS 2021 will only represent state-level data and federal data reported by law enforcement. In conjunction with CIUS, the FBI will release a trend study that will look at a year-over-year change in violent crime and property crime.

The reason for the change is that not every law enforcement agency in the U.S. has successfully moved to the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) for reporting their crime data to the FBI. With support from the FBI, some agencies have been reporting crime statistics via NIBRS for more than 20 years. After the CJIS Advisory Policy Board adopted the recommendation in 2015 to retire the traditional Summary Reporting System and transition to the more comprehensive NIBRS by January 2021, more agencies made the switch to NIBRS reporting. Every state is now NIBRS compliant and can accept NIBRS data. A few major cities, however,

Charged

John Dyer, 59, Alley Drive Friendsville, was charged with DUI, Simple Possession, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy K. Palmer LCSO, was driving down Highway 11 West when he observed a white Dodge 3500 in the wrong lane coming head on at a vehicle in front him. The vehicle got over on the shoulder to avoid a collision. Deputy turned around at which time he observed it got back into the correct lane of travel. The vehicle then crossed into the wrong lane of traffic again almost striking another vehicle. Deputy attempted to stop the vehicle at which time it crossed back to the correct lane of travel and stopped. Deputy made contact with the driver Mr. John G. Dyer. Deputy observed Mr. Dyer's eyes were red and glassy with restricted pupils. Deputy asked Mr. Dyer if he had anything to drink or had taken any medication at which time he stated no that he had just taken blood pressure medication. Deputy asked Mr. Dyer if he would exit the vehicle at which time he agreed. While speaking with Mr. Dyer outside the vehicle Deputy could smell a odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from his person. Mr. Dyer later stated that he had take a Suboxone earlier in the morning. Deputy asked Mr. Dyer if he was willing to do some field sobriety task at which time he agreed. Mr. Dyer did perform poorly on all field sobriety task. Mr. Dyer also stated he had his suboxone in his wallet which was in the truck but did not have his prescription with him. Mr. Dyer was placed under arrest for DUI. Deputy did locate 9 Suboxone strips in Mr. Dyer's wallet but he could not provide any prescription.

Mr. Dyer was read the Tennessee Implied Consent Form at which time he refused to provide a blood sample. Mr. Dyer was transported to the Loudon County Jail and charged with DUI, Simple possession of Sch 3 and violation of implied consent. Mr. Dyer was also cited for driving on roadways laned for traffic. The vehicle was towed from the scene by James Wrecker Service.

This did occur in Loudon County TN.

Theft+

Lindsey Nipper, 23, Old Highway 68 Sweetwater, was charged with Theft of Property x2, Burglary, and Vandalism. Deputy W. Jenkins LCSO, responded to Maynards Trucking at Vonore Road in Loudon to assist Deputy Cody Bengal with a burglary call. Deputy spoke to victim who advised Deputy that at some time last night his father, victim received a call from witness who lives across the street from Maynards Trucking. Witness informed victim that she had observed a female in a dump truck at Maynards Trucking. Victim advised Deputy that wires were cut in the interior of the dump truck. Victim also advised that a flashlight and his key had been taken. Deputy spoke to witness who showed him a home surveillance video of the female. Deputy identified the female as Lindsey Nipper whom he knew from a call earlier in the day involving a stolen truck. A Monroe County Narcotics Investigator transported Mrs. Nipper to the Loudon County Sheriff's Office where she was interviewed by CID. During the interview, Mrs. Nipper admitted to entering the dump truck. This did happen in Loudon County Tn.

are still working on the transition.

Crime estimates will fill in the gaps where data is not available this year. Estimation has been associated with the release for more than 50 years. This year, FBI data experts will use robust estimation tools, developed in collaboration with the Department of Justice's Bureau of Justice Statistics, to create the most accurate crime estimates possible during this transition period.

Although this year may present a challenge for those studying and addressing crime in the short term, in the long term, NIBRS will be a more effective system. It will have better data and will help law enforcement and communities improve public safety.

How Crime in the United States Will Look Different This Year

During this transition year, participation has remained too low for a representative sample. This year, the UCR Program will offer a limited release of Crime in the United States.

That release will include:
a trend study comparing 2020 and 2021 crime data using some of the new NIBRS estimation data

state-level data
federal data

The release will not include:

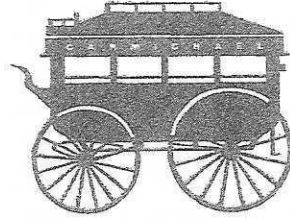

national view tables

The FBI will continue to work with law enforcement partners to increase the number of agencies participating in NIBRS so full statistics can be released in the coming years.

"Genuine community policing is all about transparency, information sharing, and collaboration on strategies that make everyone safer. NIBRS is another tool to help the community fulfill that mission," said San Antonio Police Department Chief William P. McManus of NIBRS. "NIBRS is another tool to help law enforcement fulfill our commitment to the community and our mission."

The FBI continues to work with law enforcement nationwide to ensure their transition to NIBRS. As of June 1, more than 12,000 law enforcement agencies are reporting their information to NIBRS. This outpaces last year, when less than 11,000 agencies reported NIBRS data for the entire year.

Horoscopes

errands taken care of. You could also find yourself changed somewhat - for the better, of course.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

New ideas for your career could be on your mind, Virgo. You might be thinking not only about getting a new job but also entering an entirely new field. This could be a positive development, but don't be too impulsive and leap without thinking. List your options, cross out the unworkable ones, and do some research on the rest. Even though you may feel some urgency, there is none.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Continued success and good luck should have you feeling charged up to move ahead with plans and ideas. Your energy and enthusiasm are high, Libra. You're likely thinking about expanding your horizons, perhaps through travel or education. You should definitely give these serious thought. Plan carefully and take care not to move before the time is right.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Don't be surprised if sometime during the day you feel angry for no apparent reason, Scorpio. It's probably rooted in the past, from a situation that wasn't resolved long ago. Take a good look at what's going on today. Did some person or event awaken old traumas within you? Let them and the anger go. This can only benefit you and clear the way for more positive emotions.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

This is a great day to start new enterprises with others, Sagittarius. Possible gatherings with friends or group activities could lead to ideas for new projects that fire your energy and enthusiasm. New immediate and long-term goals should be set. Some people may not be interested and could drop out, but don't worry. Others who share your interests will quickly step in to take their places.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Activities of some kind could put you in the public eye today, Capricorn. Some work you've done well might bring you richly deserved acknowledgement. Your energy and enthusiasm are already high, and you're probably all fired up to do more. This could bring up thoughts of changes in your working situation. But don't give notice right away. Some careful thought is needed.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Changes to your chosen field are indicated, Aquarius. Ideas from other states or countries might fire your creativity. Your intellectual or artistic interests could take on a new dimension, expanding your horizons and opening new opportunities. You might toy with the idea of travel, perhaps to learn more about these matters. Possible formal education in new fields is also indicated.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

A sum of money above and beyond your usual income could come your way. This could be a bonus, settlement, or even a gift of some kind. You could put it to work making changes in your home, perhaps repairs, perhaps remodeling or redecorating. This may seem like a daunting prospect, but you'll have the energy and enthusiasm in addition to the money. Go to it.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Some vast changes in your community could take place, Aries.

They're positive, for the most part. Today the news should spread widely, and you could be hearing about it from all sides - local newspapers, neighbors, and conversations on the street. The level of excitement in your neighborhood is likely high, and you could get caught up in it. Be prepared for some surprises.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Taurus, you might choose to do some volunteer work today or help a friend. This could make you aware of a talent you didn't know you had. It could pave the way to more income. You could feel very proud of yourself and decide to do more with this ability, leading not only to financial benefits but also to increased self-esteem. Go for it.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Today you might wake up feeling that you can move mountains - and this might be exactly what you set out to do, figuratively speaking. Your physical energy, enthusiasm, and self-confidence are very high, Gemini. Your own and others' creative projects could take up a lot of your time. If you're coaching or helping others, however, avoid the temptation to take over the project.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Today you could recapture the joy in life that you had as a child, Cancer. You're serious by nature, and feelings of joy are to be lived and treasured. You could be experiencing true flow. There might not be any real reason for it, so don't try to find one. Your imagination and your relationships with others could be enhanced as a result. Relish the moment.
