Join me in voting "yes" on Amendment 1 this November

by Lowell Ruseell, State Representative 21st District.

This November, there will be four constitutional amendments on the ballot immediately behind the governor's race. The first of the four amendments would make our existing right-to-work protection a fundamental, constitutional right. Tennessee has proudly been a right-to-work state for the past 75 years. But some D.C. politicians and even some of my fellow legislators here in our own state have proposed eliminating right-to-work. We have to do what we can to prevent them from succeeding.

Right-to-work ensures that workers can decide whether or not to join a union and pay dues. It prohibits employers from firing the worker who chooses to join a union and the worker who chooses not to associate with the union.

One of the most important rights we have as Americans is our freedom of association. It's in the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution for a reason. We believe that people should

No License

Ramon Garcia Garcia, 20, Forthill Street Loudon, was charged with DUI, and No Driver License.

Officer Trey Clemmer LPD, was notified by dispatch that there was a reckless driving headed towards the city coming from Clear Branch Rd. Officer arrived in the area of Hwy 11 and Hwy 72 and made contact with the vehicle. Officer then followed the vehicle northbound on Hwy 11 and noticed the car was driving in the middle of the road with the hazard lights on. Officer initiated a traffic stop and made contact with the driver. As Officer spoke with the driver he noticed he had watery glassy eyes and a distinct smell of an alcoholic beverage omitting from his breath and persons. Officer was then assisted with officer Luna for translations and Officer Luna asked the driver if he had a license and how much he had to drink and he stated he didn't have a license and he hasn't drunk anything. After furthering the investigation and also informed by dispatch Mr. Ramon Garca Garcia did not have a license. Officer then searched Mr. Garcia's persons and found a whisky bottle in his front pocket, he then stated to officer Luna that he had drunk a couple of beers about 4 hours ago. Officer Luna performed HGN because Mr. Garcia had a knee brace and couldn't perform the other parts of SFST and we were then assisted by deputy 938 for ARIDE in which deputy 938 stated they could only pick up queues for alcoholic beverages. Mr. Garcia was placed under arrest for DUI and No Driver's License and transported to Loudon County Jail. The above actions did occur in the City of Loudon.

Damage

Coty Giffin, 34, Turman Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Vandalism, and Public Intoxication

Officer Farmer LCPD, was dispatched to Kentucky Fried Chicken, Hwy 321 N, in regards to a burglary alarm for a front glass break. Upon arrival, Officer observed multiple outdoor ashtrays spaced out around the property that had been disturbed.

While checking the area of the KFC, Sgt. Rayfield informed Officer of a male subject at the front enclosed patio of Bella's Hibachi & Sushi.

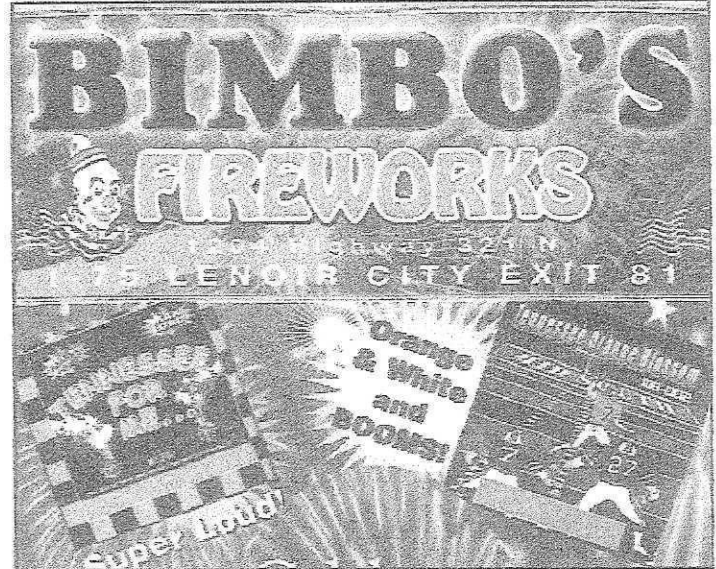

Upon arrival at Bella's, officers observed 34 year old Coty Giffin in an enclosed, outdoor patio, actively attempting to break the patio door of Bella's with a metal patio chair. Officer climbed over the patio rails and placed Mr. Giffin into custody and while speaking with Mr. Giffin, Officer observed that he was unable to make a coherent sentence, he was unaware of the time of day and he was fidgety and unstable on his feet; Mr. Giffin later admitted that he was under the influence of Methamphetamine.

Mr. Giffin stated he was attempting to break into Bella's due to the "managers (of Bella's) not being able to enter (the restaurant)". Officers observed multiple broken items along with trash, potting soil, and glass all over the sidewalk. The trash cans had been dumped and the trash was scattered, the potting soil had been dumped from planters, and the glass was from lights, from the outdoor patio, that had been broken. Mr. Giffin was transported to Loudon County Jail without incident. Upon further investigation, officers observed that the Mr. Giffin had broken a patio light and torn the fixture from the wires, caused significant damage to the patio door subsequently resulting to it being dented in multiple areas, broke an umbrella and umbrella stand that were located on a table that he had overturned, turned over multiple chairs and trashcans, spread the trash from said trashcans, dumped the soil out of two planters and pulled down the gutters from the side of the restaurant.

DUI

Ethan Sorrell, 19, Tennessee Chapel Circle Kingston, was charged with DUI, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy J. Sartin LCSO, initiated a traffic stop on a black Acura for having a headlight out. Upon contact with the driver, Mr. Ethan Sorrell, he was informed about his headlight and admitted he knew it was out. In the back was a male who when asked if he had an idea stated he was only 15 and appeared to be under the influence. The female in the front stated she was 17 and did not have an identification as well. Deputy had Mr. Sorrell step out of the car so Deputy could get his identification. While speaking with Mr. Sorrell Deputy noticed his eyes were red and glossy and his pupils were large and he was mumbling while speaking. Mr. Sorrell admitted to having marijuana in his glovebox and a small amount was recovered along with paraphernalia. Mr. Sorrell was asked to perform standardized field sobriety to which he agreed and performed poorly. Deputy had Deputy S. Gaumer perform ARIDE to which he stated the male performed poorly as well. At that time Mr. Sorrell was placed into custody for driving under the influence. He was then read implied to consent to which he originally agreed and then refused while on the way to the hospital.

Once out at the jail Mr. Sorrell was read his Miranda rights and was asked when he smoked last and he stated it was an hour or less before Deputy stopped him. Mr. Sorrell was charged with driving under the influence and violation of implied consent. This did occur in Loudon County be free to associate with groups they agree with, including joining a union. We also believe that people should never be forced to join or pay to associate with an organization they disagree with or don't want to support.

Not only is right-to-work a cherished right, but this Tennessee tradition has made our state economy strong. Tennessee is thriving compared to forced unionization states like California, Illinois, and New York that don't protect this right. We have the lowest debt per capita in the entire nation and the second lowest overall tax burden. Right-to-work states like Tennessee also have higher income growth and employment growth than states that don't protect the right-to-work.

I for one want to keep it this way. I don't want us to become one of those states that over-tax and rack up debt that even their great-grandchildren will be paying. One of the critical distinctions between those states and ours is whether or not they protect right-to-work.

Given how important this is and given the growing attacks on worker freedom both nationally and here at home, the best thing we can do is enshrine right-to-work in our Tennessee Constitution. That's why the legislature has placed Amendment 1 on the ballot.

It's not often that we amend our state constitution, and it's a long process. It takes two votes of the legislature, the second by a two-thirds majority, to even put a constitutional amendment on the ballot. As your state representative, I proudly voted both times to protect this right.

Now it's your turn to make your voice heard. The final step to amending the constitution comes down to your vote to ratify Amendment 1. On November 8, if you will be voting to keep Tennessee moving forward for generations to come. That's why I will be voting "yes on 1" and I hope you will, too.

Rep. Lowell Russell represents District 21 in the Tennessee House of Representatives. He is also the chairman of Yes on 1 in Loudon and Monroe Counties.

ny ability to pick up on other people's feelings. Your nurturing gifts are in high demand by those around you. They'll need a sensitive shoulder to lean on. Just make sure you don't lose yourself in the process. Save some energy for you.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Other people's indecisiveness could leave you feeling frustrated and stuck today, Libra. Realize that you can overcome this by pushing past them. Don't feel like you need to wait for others to make up their minds before you act. Do what you need to do, and others will catch up when they're ready. You aren't responsible for the well-being of others. Concentrate on you.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

It may be much easier than usual to express your emotions to someone today, Scorpio. If there has been something on your mind for a while, now is the time to say it. You'll be able to paint a clear picture of your true feelings. Express yourself with confidence so you don't come across as helpless or clingy. Your sensitivity is a gift that others will recognize and appreciate.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

Does it feel like someone's raining on your parade today, Sagittarius? No surprise there. You may feel like you're stuck in a bog, so wear your galoshes and give it your best shot. That's all you can do. People may be extra touchy and impatient with ridiculous banter, even if it is polite. Try not to make sense of things that seem confusing now. Come back to them in a couple days.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Your intuition is extra keen today, Capricorn, and your mental aim is on target. Other people may sink into the swamp, but you're the life raft they can cling to. Your amazing mental clarity will be invaluable throughout the day. You'll be able to communicate your feelings clearly, and you should find their receptivity to your thoughts much greater than usual.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You might find the mood of today a bit too somber for your liking, Aquarius. Why is everyone so serious? Whether you figure out the answer or not, just know that it probably isn't something you did. Emotions that have been building up are likely to express themselves now, much like a volcano bursting under the pressure of tons of molten lava.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Yes, you may have another cookie, Pisces. Enjoy it and don't feel guilty. Guilt is useless. Today, get rid of regret. Express your emotions but don't dwell on them. Your sensitivity is acute, so put up your psychic shield. You might pick up on others' intense energy, so be careful. Sympathize with others, but don't take on their garbage. They need to take out their own trash.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You might just want to stay on the couch today, Aries. That's fine. Don't get up if you don't want to. You're probably better off sticking close to home and enjoying a good movie tonight. If people ask how you're doing, be honest. Others will be able to see right through you, so don't try to hide your feelings. Today is a good day to say how you really feel.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Finally, the world is starting to see it your way, Taurus. Be yourself and don't be squeamish about telling people exactly how it is. Your thinking is clear and focused. Use your penetrating mind to accomplish mental tasks. Your intense nature is powerful, so act wisely. Today may well be one in which other people realize that you really aren't as crazy as they first thought.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Give people the benefit of the doubt, Gemini. Don't be so hasty in your actions, and take the time to think things through. You have a special connection with your feelings today that can aid in clearing some of the fog in your thinking. Your sensitivity to others is remarkably strong. People will be particularly drawn to this side of you, especially tonight.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Put your businesslike nature aside for the day and focus on your feelings, Cancer. You may be a bit protective of your emotions, but realize that much of what you're feeling is best experienced through expressing it to others. Reach down deep and get in touch with what you truly believe to be the heart of the issue. Your thinking is clear as can be today, so enjoy it!

Leo 7/23-8/22

Call or write a letter to a friend today, Leo. Your brain may feel like it's stuck in a rut, which is probably best remedied by sharing these feelings with others. Take it one step at a time, and be patient with others in return. People are likely to snap more easily since fuses will be extra short. Take care as you approach the deep end. Make sure you have your life jacket on.
