Marion County Pastor Stole Thousands from Disabled Man

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office, working at the request of the District Attorney General of the 12th Judicial District, has resulted in the multi-count indictment of David C. Berry of Jasper, TN.

Berry is the pastor of the Praise & Worship Family Outreach Center (PWFOC) and the owner of The Tax Service in Jasper. In 2011, he was appointed as the representative payee through the Social Security Administration to manage disability payments on behalf of a disabled adult. Berry was responsible for paying for the needs of the disabled adult.

Comptroller investigators determined that Berry misappropriated at least $27,386.29 belonging to the disabled adult. This amount includes $16,686.42 in unauthorized checks paid to the PWFOC; $9,000 in money withdrawn and transferred from the disabled adult's accounts; $898.75 in money paid for Berry and his wife's dental care; and $801.12 paid to an automotive shop for work done on Berry's personal vehicle.

Tyler Elliott, 24, Kingston Highway Loudon, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and General Session Capias.

Officer R. Miller, with the Lenoir City Police Department, was in the area of Church Drive near Ivey Avenue in Lenoir City, TN actively looking for a subject who had an active warrant out of Lenoir City Municipal Court for a failure to appear on an original charge of unlawful drug paraphernalia. While in the area Officer along with other officers located the subject, Tyler Elliott, who was sitting in a black in color Honda sedan in the driveway of Ivey Avenue. Officer quickly made contact with ELLIOTT who was in the driver's seat of the vehicle and placed him in custody without incident. While under arrest a search of ELLIOTT'S person was conducted where he quickly stated that he had a "point" (hypodermic needle) in his front left pant pocket. Officer was able to locate the hypodermic needle where it was properly disposed of in a sharps container. During the investigation a probable cause search of the vehicle was conducted where officer located a small bag containing a crystal-like substance believed to be methamphetamine in the front driver's side floorboard of the vehicle. The bag that contained the crystal-like substance was located near a camouflage beanie that the officer observed ELLIOTT place into the floor before exiting the vehicle. The approximate weight of the crystal-like substance along with the bag was (0.87 grams). ELLIOTT was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Adrian Patton, 43, Bird Road Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy Brockwell LCSO, arrived at Bird Road for a welfare check. Deputy came in contact with a woman/victim who had apparent bruises on both eyes. Before deputy arrived the complainant, stated that his ex-wife, the victim, had been assaulted by her boyfriend, Adrian Patton. When deputy asked victim what happened, she stated that on January 23, 2024, her and Patton were arguing about him bringing home another girl. The argument then went into the kitchen, and that is when Adrian used a closed handed strike and struck her in the face causing her eyes to bleed and bruise (see images in reference to the apparent marks). After she was on the ground, victim claims that Patton crushed a lighter over the top of her head causing a knot (injuries in reference to this were unidentifiable). Victim also claimed that he has assaulted her on numerous occasions but never calls the cops because she is scared of him. Before deputy arrived, Patton left the residence, and we were unable to make contact with him. Deputy then spoke to the ex-husband, on a phone call, and he stated that he has proof that the assault occurred. Ex husband provided text messages of Patton claiming to assault victim (see images in reference to the text messages). Victim then called Adrian and during the conversation, Adrian claimed that assaulting her was in self-defense and he was the one being abused in the relationship. The victim was then transported to another residence for her safety. Due to the information provided by the complainant, the information from the victim, and the evidence found, a warrant for domestic assault has been filed for Adrian Patton.

Charged

Nathan Wood, 42, Tango Drive Madisonville, was charged with Mfg/Sel/Poss. of Controlled Substance, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Officer Valletto LPD, was dispatched to a welfare check for a vehicle that had been seen running for the past few hours with the headlights on, located on Corporate Park Dr. across from Morgan Olson. Upon making contact with the occupant of the vehicle Nathan Wood, the officer noticed he was sleeping with the drivers seat reclined all the way back. In plain view the officer noticed an Open Container of alcohol and a glass pipe with residue located on the front arm rest of the vehicle. At that point the officer detained Mr. Wood and conducted a probable cause search of the vehicle and located a pack of cigarettes in a cup holder that contained 1.97 grams of a crystal like substance believed to be Crystal Methamphetamine. Mr. Wood was then placed under arrest for Drug Paraphernalia, and Possession of a Schedule 2 narcotic, he was then read his rights by Sergeant Cogdill at which time Mr. Wood admitted that the substance was Crystal Methamphetamine. These actions did occur in the City of Loudon.

Police beat

Juan Villanueva, 28, Holyfield Road Gadsden, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Officers with the Lenoir City Police Department were dispatched to Glenfield Dr. in reference to a domestic assault. Upon arrival officer made contact with Mr. Villanueva and the victim, parties were separated, and officer began to investigate. Mr. Villanueva stated that the victim got mad because he would not leave the house and punched him in the lip and pulled the two chains, he wore on his neck off. The victim stated that her youngest daughter had texted her while she was at the store stating the "dad was already drinking". The victim arrived home and asked him to turn the music down and to stop smoking inside the residence. Mr. Villanueva stated that "it's my house I can do what I want to do", he then went upstairs and took her car keys so she could not leave to take the kids to school or go to work tomorrow. She then reached for the keys, and he shoved her backwards. She grabbed his hoodie to pull him in to get the keys and the chains broke. Mr. Villanueva's cell phone also struck the victim who stated that she was in fear when he shoved her. Mr. Villanueva was then placed into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without any further incident. All the above happened in Loudon County, Tennessee

Pastor found that Berry named himself as conservator and exceeded his authority by controlling $366,587.76 belonging to the disabled adult and his wife. There were numerous questionable purchases made using this money including restaurant purchases, fuel purchases, various retail store purchases, a loan for a Super Bowl party, and numerous cash transactions.

Berry also made multiple questionable transfers from accounts belonging to the disabled adult and his wife.

Based upon this investigation, in February 2024, the Marion County Grand Jury indicted David C. Berry on one count of financial exploitation of an elderly or vulnerable adult; one count of theft over $10,000; and one count of violation of the Computer Crimes Act.

Police beat

Shawn Thronburg, 48, Alpine Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, was dispatched to Alpine Drive in reference to a physical domestic. The complainant advised her husband Shawn had thrown her to the ground. Once on scene, deputy made contact with the offender, Shawn Thronburg, speaking with Cpl. Dishner on the front porch of the residence. While speaking with him, Shawn stated he and his wife Mandy had been in an argument over certain matters when she became upset about him playing loud music on his Bluetooth speaker. Shawn stated victim picked up the speaker and threw it on the ground. When victim went to throw the speaker again, he pushed her in the back to prevent her from throwing it. At this point, deputy went into the residence to speak with the victim, who stated they had been drinking when she was lying on the couch in the living room trying to sleep.

She got up from the couch and grabbed the speaker due to Shawn playing loud music and threw it. She stated Shawn then pushed her in the back causing her to be thrown to the ground and hit her head on the floor. The deputy did observe a large bruise and swelling to the right side of her forehead above her right eye. Mandy stated he then picked her up and threw her into the corner of the room causing her to fall on a Christmas tree. Mandy did agree to provide and written statement on the incident.

The deputy placed Shawn Thronburg in custody and transported him to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Loudon County General Sessions Court at the Justice Center is upgrading our Court's computer server from the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Our computer system will be down on Tuesday, February 27, 2024 for the day.

We strategically planned this event, as this is the Judicial Conference week, and there is no court on our dockets.

Our office will be open as normal, however, our computers will not be functional. We will not be able to provide any research of cases, enter new process to the computer system, or locate the docket numbers, etc. of any cases.

Law Enforcement Agencies can still submit warrants to Kim Nix, JC as normal during the daytime hours, they can be viewed on her tablet. (Laura Standridge will be out of the office on this date).

We apologize for this inconvenience, however, it is necessary for the efficiency of our office, and to better serve you.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation. Please feel free to pass on to your staff.
