Ongoing Joint Investigation Leads to Human Trafficking Arrest

An ongoing joint investigation into a multinational criminal organization linked to human trafficking in Middle Tennessee has led to the arrest of a second person from Murfreesboro.

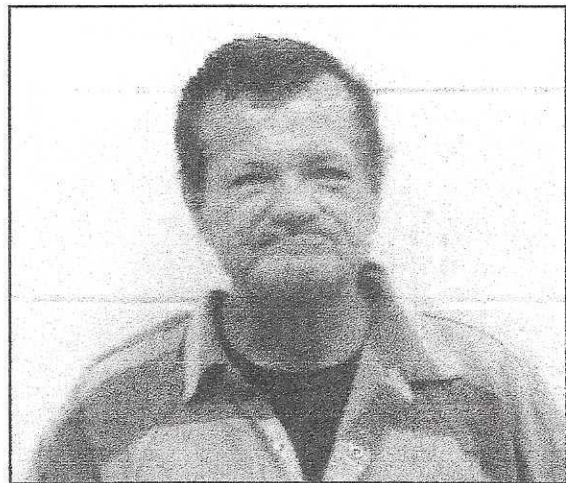

In the fall of 2023, TBI special agents assigned to TBI's specialized Human Trafficking Unit developed information that led to the arrest of Yilibeth Rivero De Caldera on charges connected to the trafficking of Hispanic female immigrants in Nashville for commercial sex.

On Wednesday, TBI, with the partnership of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Homeland Security Investigations, Metro Nashville Police Department, and the

Polk County Audit Findings Go Uncorrected

The Tennessee Comptroller's annual audit of the Polk County government includes 11 findings, eight of which were also noted in the previous year's report.

The audit for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 includes material weaknesses, significant deficiencies, and areas of noncompliance with in the county government.

Polk County operates under the Fiscal Control Acts of 1957, which require the director of accounts and budget to maintain accounting records for funds administered by both the county executive and the highway superintendent. However, the highway department's funds are being maintained by highway department personnel. This significant finding has been repeated over the last 12 annual audits and has not been corrected.

Several of the findings in the report are related to the Office of Director of Schools. In addition to not having its accounting records closed on time, the office also had purchasing deficiencies, accounting deficiencies, and it failed to hold

Meth

Kara Weeks, 38, Shenandoah Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Child Abuse/Neglect/Endangerment, Driving while in Possession of Meth, Display of Registration, and Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth.

Deputy Willis along with Deputy McCall LCSO, observed a red Nissan Altima traveling southbound on Town Creek Parkway with a registration plate border that had fallen off one side and was obstructing the view of the registration plate. The vehicle took an immediate right on Cotton Mill Boulevard once the deputy pulled out behind it. The driver of the vehicle began to reach over into the passenger side of the vehicle. Deputy initiated a traffic stop at the intersection of Cotton Mill and Adesa Parkway. Deputy McCall made contact with the driver/offender Kara Weeks who also had a 3-year-old child in the rear passenger seat. Ms. Weeks could not provide registration paperwork or proof of insurance for the vehicle. Deputy McCall asked Ms. Weeks to exit the vehicle and step back to the patrol vehicle. While speaking with Ms. Weeks Deputy McCall asked for consent to search the vehicle to which she did give consent. During the consensual search, Deputy McCall located a cigarette pack in a purse that was located in the front passenger seat. Ms. Weeks did say that was her purse when asked. Inside the cigarette pack, we located what appeared to be 4 clear baggies with a crystal-like substance inside believed to be Methamphetamine that weighed 18.4 grams (field weight). Narcotics Investigators were called to the scene for further investigation. Ms.

Weeks was placed in custody for Manufacture, Delivery, Sale, or Possession of Methamphetamines, Driving While in Possession of Methamphetamine, Child abuse/Neglect, and Display of Registration Plates. During this time Ms. Weeks pulled another small baggie from her bra weighing (0.87 grams field weight) for a total of 19.2 grams. The substance was tested via TruNarc by Narcotics Investigators and it did test positive for Methamphetamine. The TruNarc scan number is 2563. A DCS referral was made due to the Narcotics being within close proximity and accessible to the child, Referral ID: 1467811210. Ms. Weeks was transported to the Loudon County Jail. This did occur in Loudon County Tennessee.
