Megan Gardner, 27, Highland Avenue Loudon, was charged with, Aggravated Child Abuse/Neglect x2, and Aggravated Animal Cruelty x2.

Ryan Gardner, 32, Highland Avenue Loudon, was charged with, Resisting Arrest, Aggravated Child Abuse/Neglect x2, and Aggravated Animal Cruelty x2.

Officers with the LPD, were dispatched to a welfare check regarding a toddler standing alone in the roadway. Upon arrival officers discovered the toddler and attempted to make contact with a parent/guardian by knocking on the open door of Highland Ave. Mr. Ryan Gardner came to the door appearing to be under the influence of a narcotic, and also resisted arrest when officers took him into custody. A meth pipe was discovered in plain view where he had been sitting. Mrs. Megan Gardner came out of the house in the same state and was also placed under arrest. Juvenile 1 (toddler found in the roadway) is approximately 2 years old, wearing nothing but a days-old diaper, and had several minor injuries including severe diaper rash and yeast infection. EMS advised she appears to be autistic. Juvenile 2 is approximately 1 year old and was located in a back bedroom on a squalid bed wearing the same attire and in the same physical state. The child was asleep with no sheet or blanket, and officers had difficulty waking the child when assessing her. The entire house has been grossly neglected to the point that Codes Enforcement has immediately posted the residence as Unfit for Habitation. Animal Control also took possession of two small breed dogs due to the state of the residence. Both juveniles were transported by EMS to Fort Loudon Medical Center for evaluation. Mr. Gardner was transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident and is being charged with Aggravated Child Abuse/Neglect, Aggravated Cruelty to Animals, Resisting Arrest, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. Mrs. Gardner was transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident and is being charged with Aggravated Child Abuse/Neglect and Aggravated Cruelty to Animals. Holmes District Judge in the United States District Court at Knoxville on a date to be determined.

The evidence presented at trial showed that Holmes participated in a scheme to defraud elderly victims. Evidence presented showed that Holmes and others worked to steal money from individuals intending to invest their money. The evidence further showed that Holmes and others then posed as federal agents who promised to help the victims recover money lost through investments; victims were induced to pay fake fees, taxes, and court costs, yet did not receive the return of any lost money—the victims only lost more.

United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III of the Eastern District of Tennessee and Special Agent in Charge Joseph E. Carrico of the Nashville Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation made the announcement.

The case was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation with the assistance of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Assistant United States Attorneys Michael S. Deel, David P. Lewen, Jr., and William A. Roach, Jr. represented the United States in this case.

including its primary intelligence service the Ministry of State Security (MSS) and its domestic police agency the Ministry of Public Security (MPS), weaponize InfoSec companies by tasking companies that advertise legitimate cybersecurity services to also use their expertise to gain unauthorized access to victim networks to collect for China's intelligence services.

This ecosystem of InfoSec companies and freelance hackers enables and encourages indiscriminate global cyber activity, while providing the Chinese government with a layer of plausible deniability.

Today, the Southern District of New York unsealed an indictment against eight employees of China-based InfoSec company Anxun Information Technology Co., Ltd., aka i-Soon, and two MPS officers who, at times, directed i-Soon activities in service of the Chinese government. i-Soon has been a key player in China's InfoSec ecosystem over the last decade, working with at least 43 separate MSS or MPS bureaus in 31 provinces and municipalities across China. The indicted i-Soon hackers sold stolen data to the MSS and MPS from a myriad of victims, to include US-based critics of the Chinese government and Chinese dissidents, a US news organization, a large US-based religious organization, multiple governments in Asia, and US federal and state government agencies. i-Soon sold information pha, Red Hotel, Charcoal Typhoon, Red Scylla, Hassium, Chromium, and TAG-22.

Also today, the District Court for the District of Columbia unsealed two indictments of freelance Chinese hackers Yin KeCheng and Zhou Shuai, who maintained ties to i-Soon and the Chinese government. Since 2011, Yin and Zhou have operated in China's InfoSec ecosystem and enriched themselves by selling stolen US information to the Chinese government. Zhou served for a period of time in i-Soon's Strategic Consulting Division. Yin, known in Chinese hacking circles for his prolific targeting of US entities, explained to an associate in 2013 that he wanted to "mess with the American military" and "break into a big target," hoping the proceeds from selling the stolen US data would be enough to purchase a car. On at least one occasion, Yin compromised sensitive data which he turned over to Zhou, who partnered with an i-Soon employee to sell the stolen data.

Yin and Zhou's activities are publicly tracked as APT27, Threat Group 3390, Bronze Union, Emissary Panda, Lucky Mouse, Iron Tiger, UTA0178, UNC 5221, and Silk Typhoon.

Horoscopes

Aries 3/21-4/19

Today, you might face a tough decision, Aries. A friend might ask you for help, but you're uncomfortable with what they're asking. It's important to weigh the situation carefully. Think about all possible outcomes before making a decision. Consider how this could impact both you and your friend in the long run.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

It's one of those days where you might feel a bit off without any clear reason, Taurus. This can happen due to low energy cycles. Instead of overthinking, channel this mood into a positive activity. Consider hitting the gym or going for a brisk walk to boost those endorphins.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Enjoy this reunion to the fullest, Gemini! As you prepare for the visit, think about the key highlights or stories you've gathered since your last meet-up. This will ensure the conversation is engaging and lively.

While it's tempting to extend your time together, remember that keeping it brief and meaningful can leave you both wanting more.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Today might feel a bit quieter at home, Cancer, as others are likely busy with their own activities. But this gives you the perfect opportunity to tackle those projects you've been putting off. Whether it's organizing a closet, catching up on emails, or finally fixing that little thing that's been bugging you, use this time to your advantage.

Leo 7/23-8/22

It's important to look out for someone close to you today, Leo. They might not be feeling their best, and your support could really make a difference. While you take care of them, remember to protect your own energy. Your empathy is heightened, so you might feel their discomfort more intensely than usual.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Your goal may feel out of reach right now, Virgo, but don't let that discourage you. Consider taking a step back and reevaluating your approach. Sometimes, letting go and giving yourself space can lead to new perspectives and unexpected breakthroughs. Reflect on the progress you've already made and understand that patience and persistence are key.

Libra 9/23-10/22

It seems like a balancing act today, Libra. Someone at home needs your support, but you've got career obligations too. It's important to weigh the situation carefully. If you decide to stay, make sure it's really necessary and that you've exhausted other ways to support them, like arranging help from others or handling things over the phone.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

An important career concern could require considerable effort today to advance your goals, Scorpio. Doubts might creep in, questioning your ability to succeed. But don't panic. Muster some energy and keep your focus sharp.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

It looks like your travel plans might hit a pause button due to financial reasons, Sagittarius, with a companion who's also a bit strapped for cash. It might feel disappointing now, but remember, it's just a delay, not a cancellation. Start planning the trip details anyway—pick your destinations, research travel deals, and maybe even set a new, tentative date.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Stay focused and determined while tackling your important task today, Capricorn. Your perseverance can help you achieve great results, but it's crucial to maintain balance. Make sure to schedule regular breaks to recharge and avoid burnout.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Today might be a bit of a rollercoaster, Aquarius. That business or romantic partner of yours is likely to be all over the place with their emotions. You'll probably find it both intriguing and challenging to keep up with their mood swings—from enthusiastic highs to gloomy lows. It's important to stay grounded and keep the focus on what needs to be done.
