Beware of Charitable Fraud Related to Mass Casualty and Disaster Events

The FBI is issuing this Public Service Announcement to warn the public that scammers exploit mass casualty events and disasters, such as the New Year's Day terrorist attack in New Orleans and the ongoing wildfires in Los Angeles, to commit fraud by soliciting fake charitable donations to support victims or their families. Scammers may pose as disaster relief agencies to collect personal information, conduct charitable fraud schemes, or commit fraud against disaster assistance programs. Scammers may also impersonate official entities, celebrities, influencers, or other individuals. For example, a scammer might pose online as a high profile victim to solicit donations. Artificial Intelligence (AI) may be used to increase perceived legitimacy of a fraud or impersonation.

Criminals have used past crises as opportunities to target members of the public with fraudulent donation schemes. Scammers take advantage of catastrophic incidents — such as mass casualty events, terrorist attacks, war, natural disasters, or pandemics — to increase perceived legitimacy of a fraud or impersonation. Criminals have used past crises as opportunities to target members of the public with fraudulent donation schemes. Scammers take advantage of catastrophic incidents — such as mass casualty events, terrorist attacks, war, natural disasters, or pandemics — see Fraud pg. 5

Timothy Whitehead, 29, Dawson Road Sweetwater, was charged with, Domestic Assault.

Allison Bogle 20, Dawson Road Sweetwater, was charged with Assisting other Agency.

Deputy Willis along with Sgt. Rogers LCSO, responded to an open 911 line at Dawson Road. Loudon County Dispatch was giving us updates from the open line where a male could be heard yelling at a female stating he was going to drag her by her hair up the driveway. On the open line, Dispatch could also hear the male making statements that he was going to kill their unborn child. You could hear a female screaming on the open line as well. When we arrived at the residence Monroe County Sheriff's Office arrived on scene with us. We began giving out commands on our car's loudspeaker. Dispatch then said she could hear the male telling the female to tell the cops nothing had happened. Both subjects exited the residence and we detained the male. We then cleared the residence to make sure the scene was safe. The deputy then read Miranda Rights to the Offender Timothy Whitehead. Mr. Whitehead said it was his phone that called but told me that he and her had not argued today. He did say he was yelling at the dog. The Victim Allison Bogle said they got into an argument and she tried to leave the house but the offender followed her down the road and kept grabbing her by her hair and her arms. Ms. Bogle wrote a statement about this incident. They were picked up by a neighbor and driven back to the residence. The deputy took Mr. Whitehead into custody for Domestic Assault. While running both subjects through dispatch Ms. Bogle came back with a warrant out of Bradley County for Violation of Probation docket number 23-cr-2882. Both Subjects were transported to the Loudon County Detention Facility.

Fraud

ics — to pose as charitable entities providing humanitarian aid or developing fundraising efforts, including monetary and cryptocurrency donations. Charitable fraud schemes associated with natural disasters are a common occurrence online as well as through in-person collection drives.

In 2024, the FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center (IC3) received more than 4,500 complaints reporting approximately $96 million in losses to fraudulent charities, crowdfunding accounts, and disaster relief campaigns.

TIPS TO PROTECT YOURSELF

Do your own research before you donate to anything. Confirm the validity of any charitable opportunity. Best practices include, but are not limited to:

Verifying charities by researching the charity online to see if there are news articles, reviews, or posts linking the charity to fraud; checking to see if the charity is registered with your state's charity regulator, if available; and checking the Internal Revenue Service's website (<https://www.irs.gov>) to see if the charity is registered.

Validating that crowdfunding efforts are supporting the beneficiaries advertised; researching who is behind the crowdfunding request; researching who the request is intended to benefit and if the need is legitimate; and reverse searching images and stories associated with the request, as scammers will often copy and paste material stolen from others.

Be suspicious of online communications claiming to be from individuals affected by the events and seeking immediate financial assistance.

Recognize that pressure to "act fast" might be a sign of a scam.

Do not send payments to unknown individuals or organizations asking for financial assistance.

Do not communicate with or open texts, posts, emails, attachments, or links from unknown individuals posing as entities soliciting charitable donations or humanitarian aid.

Review email headers and domain information to evaluate legitimacy. Emails from official organizations almost never will come from free email services. IP addresses can reveal if the information is originating from overseas. Domain names and IP addresses' current registration information may be available through the registry at lookup.ICANN.org if it was not restricted by the domain or IP address owner.

If an unknown individual contacts you, do not release any financial or personal identifying information (PII), and do not send any money.

Public Notice

The Loudon County Commission will hold a public hearing at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, March 3, 2025, in the Loudon County Courthouse Annex to receive public comments regarding amending the Zoning Map of Loudon County, TN to rezone Tax Map 005, Parcel 068.00, Located at White Wing Rd, Located in the 5th Legislative District, from A-2, Rural Residential District, to CFD, Community Facilities District.

Horoscopes

is prone to gossip, Aquarius. This person may have a lot to say, but be sure you take it with a grain of salt, if not the whole shaker. Your skepticism could prove invaluable in this respect. Pisces 2/19-3/20

The desire to make a major purchase of some kind, perhaps a luxury item, might have you counting your pennies today, Pisces. Once they're all counted, you might doubt the wisdom of buying it now. This isn't the day to make a decision either way.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Worries about a household member could plague you today, Aries. This person might have gone away without telling anyone, or seem upset. Your friend is probably OK but at odds with someone outside the household rather than in it. Let this person work it out in whatever way they see fit.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

A sibling or neighbor may tell you one thing, Taurus, while your intuition tells you the opposite. This isn't a vindictive deception. The person is probably trying to spare your feelings. Perhaps it's better not to challenge this person. Wait until you know more before bringing up the subject.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

A friend who's having money problems might dump all their woes on you today, Gemini. Your inclination isn't to be very sympathetic, but hold back that tendency. The situation is real, and your friend is very worried and needs solutions more than criticism or sympathy.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Have you been given a task to do at work that hasn't been explained properly, Cancer? If so, you may feel at a loss. What to do? It's best to go back to the person who assigned the work and ask for more details. This could be temporarily humbling, but remember, it's better to ask a stupid question than to make a stupid mistake.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You're probably excited about a forthcoming journey, Leo, but you may be unclear about the arrangements. Don't let this situation persist or your trip might not work out the way you hope. Get in touch with people who know what's what and get as much information as you can.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

A dream or insight might find you questioning one of your long-held goals, Virgo. Perhaps you've formulated another goal you like better, or you're beginning to doubt the workability of the old one. This probably isn't a good day to make a decision of any sort.

Libra 9/23-10/22

You may be shaken to the core today by someone of great personal magnetism, Libra. Maybe you feel as if you're being overshadowed because of the grandiose ideas and mountains of information coming from this person. Perhaps you feel you're too slow. Did you ever think that someone is going too quickly? Don't automatically think that you're the one who needs to change gears.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Some unsettling news from far away could have you stressed out, Scorpio. This might affect your work if you aren't careful. Your mind may stray back and forth from work to the news and its implications. Stay focused. All signs are that whatever you've heard is likely to be far less troublesome than it appears right now.

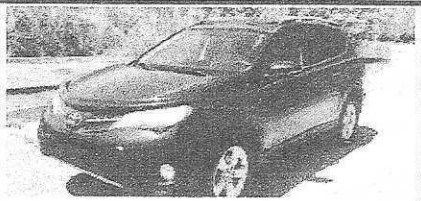

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You're likely to be in a good space right now, Sagittarius. If you're single, you're in no hurry to change that. If you're involved, you and your partner should be getting along very well. However, you might experience a little doubt when a current or potential partner becomes uncommunicative.

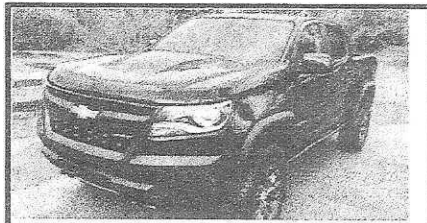

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

A visitor may come over today, Capricorn, but you might wonder why this person bothered. He or she may seem distracted and more inclined to listen to what you say than offer any conversation. Chances are that your friend felt lonely and needed some company. Be flattered.

Police beat

Joshua Hartsook, 41, 1st Avenue Lenoir City, was charged with DUI.

Officer Wilkes LCPD, observed a black Toyota Venza, sitting on the double yellow line at Frosty Proaps Dr and Hwy 321 N at the red light. Ofc. J. Arden then conducted a traffic stop at the intersection. Upon initial approach, the driver was identified as Joshua Hartsook. During our approach, Mr. Hartsook had a heavy odor of an alcoholic beverage omitting from his person and was slurring his words. In addition, Mr. Hartsook had vomit all over his jacket, and appeared to have urinated on himself and was located with the zipper to his pants down. Mr. Hartsook was instructed to place his vehicle into park and exit the vehicle, where he was observed to be extremely unsteady on his feet and using his vehicle and officer's vehicles for balance. Mr. Hartsook was asked to perform SFST's, to which he consented. During HGN, the officer observed lack of smooth pursuit, distinct and sustained nystag-mus at maximum deviation, and onset of nystagmus in both eyes. After completing HGN, the officer asked if Mr. Hartsook had any health conditions or surgeries that would hinder his ability to perform the walk and turn, to which he stated that he has trouble balancing due to being an alcoholic. During the instructional phase of the walk and turn, Mr. Hartsook was unable to maintain his balance. After explaining the walk and turn multiple times, Mr. Hartsook stated that he couldn't perform the tasks anymore. Due to the aforementioned, Mr. Hartsook was placed into my custody for driving under the influence, and his vehicle was towed per MoneyMakers. During a vehicle inventory search, Ofc. J. Arden located an empty 375mL bottle of Peppermint Schnapps (50% Alc) in the backseat. Mr. Hartsook was read the TN Implied Consent Form, to which he consented to a blood draw. Mr. Hartsook was transported to the FLMC and then to jail. All of the above did occur in Lenoir City, Loudon County, Tennessee
