State Rep. Lowell Russell, R-Vonore, has been reappointed by House Speaker Cameron Sexton, R-Crossville, to serve as chairman of the House Civil Justice Subcommittee for the 114th General Assembly.

Before being elected to the State House in 2018, Russell spent 14 years as a Tennessee State Trooper. In his personal life, he enjoys being involved in various community organizations and flying his twin-engine airplane.

"I'm truly honored to be reappointed to chair the Civil Justice Subcommittee, and grateful to Speaker Sexton for his continued trust in my leadership," Russell said. "This session, we will tackle critical issues that will have a lasting impact on our state's justice system for years to come."

The eight-member Civil Justice Subcommittee is an arm of the House Judiciary Committee and addresses legislation related to the state's civil justice system.

"As a former police officer, Representative Lowell Russell has a strong commitment to law & order," Sexton said. "As chairman of

Sex Offender

Mark Davis, 50, Kaylee Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Violation of Sex Offender Registry x2, and Prevention or Obstruction of Service.

Officer Garren, along with Officer Tatham LCPD, were dispatched to a call for a suspicious vehicle at Jim Hartsook Drive, in reference to a Gold BMW X5, bearing Tennessee Registration 412BKBL, that had been sitting outside of the apartment for fifteen to twenty minutes, per the complainant. The complainant advised the vehicle was occupied two times and was still running with the lights on. The vehicle registration was ran through central dispatch and the address on file did not match the Jim Hartsook Drive address of the call. Once on scene, officers made contact with the passenger of the vehicle who identified herself as a female who explained that they were just driving around to leave the house for a little while. They had been running errands to get her car sold and a few other things. The male in the driver seat was asked for his name and date of birth and provided to Officer Tatham the name Jackie with a date of birth of August. The name provided came back not on file. During the entirety of the traffic stop, Mr. Davis seemed nervous and tried to provide many distractions such as sudden leg pain and bathroom trips. It was determined through central dispatch with a registration check that the males true identity was Mark Davis. Mark attempted to provide Officers with a false identity. The name given to Officers was that of his brother. Once Marks name was confirmed, Officer Tatham and Garren had central dispatch check for local warrants. The Loudon County Jail confirmed that Mark Davis had two warrants for failure to appear through the Loudon County Criminal Court. Mark was placed into custody for the two warrants on failure to appear and obstruction with providing a false identity. Mark was transported to Loudon County Jail without further incident. The above did occur in Lenoir City, Loudon County, TN.

DUI+

John Allen, 23, Carey Road Speedwell, was charged with, DUI, Open Container, Speeding, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy Allen LCSO, witnessed a red Mustang traveling west on Highway 72 at 95 MPH in a marked 50 MPH zone verified with radar. The deputy turned around on the vehicle and activated his emergency equipment. The car stopped on Highway 72 near Malone Road. As the deputy exited his patrol car he noted the driver moving a lot in their seat. The deputy gave verbal commands from his vehicle telling the driver to turn off the vehicle and hold their hands out the window. The driver complied. Upon his arrival at the driver's side window, the deputy found John M. Allen in the driver's seat. Mr. Allen has a strong odor of alcoholic beverages coming from his breath, bloodshot watery eyes, and slurred speech. The deputy asked Mr. Allen to exit the vehicle to perform standardized field sobriety testing. Mr. Allen agreed, but would not follow the instructions given, refusing to follow visual stimuli with his eyes. Mr. Allen then agreed to perform the walk-and-turn test but again refused to follow instructions. Mr. Allen attempted to begin before the end of the instruction phase multiple times. Given the totality of the circumstances, the deputy was able to determine Mr. Allen was under the influence of an intoxicating substance. Mr. Allen was placed under arrest. Mr. Allen did agree to a blood draw and was transported to Fort Loudoun Medical Center. Upon staff there attempting a blood draw Mr. Allen would not sit still or argued with the staff and law enforcement about how the blood draw was going to be done. The deputy was able to determine that Mr. Allen was verbally consenting, but was impeding and refusing a blood draw with his actions. Mr. Allen was transported to the Loudon County Jail. Upon arrival at the jail while the deputy was checking his back seat the deputy found that Mr. Allen had vomited in the back seat. The vomit had a strong smell of alcoholic beverages. While Deputy Davis was performing an inventory of the vehicle for it to be towed he found an open nearly empty bottle of Pinnacle Whipped vodka on the floor behind the driver's seat. This did occur in Loudon County TN.

Austin Brown, 27, Fox Ridge Drive, Missouri, was charged with, Criminal Impersonation, Identity Theft, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Officer Kelley LPD, was on routine patrol when we received a stolen vehicle flock hit on Highway 72 tag # BQKN86 Michigan. The vehicle was spotted at the Weigel's gas station at 12350 Highway 72 N Loudon TN 37774. Upon making contact with the driver identified as Charquon Marquise Barret, he stated he was using the vehicle from a friend and it was not stolen to his knowledge. Officer Kelley could smell the odor of Marijuana coming from the vehicle, Mr. Barret was asked if there was any weed in the vehicle which he presented a bag of marijuana which weighed 53.0 Grams. When searching the vehicle, Officer Kelley found a glass pipe in the back of the front passenger side seat, a personal bank check made out to a business in a different name. Upon contacting the check owner stated he had put that check in his mail box this morning to mail out. During the search 4 different credit cards in 4 different people's names were also found in the vehicle. The front passenger gave the name of Latrise Nicole Brown and later found an ID with the name Austin James Brown.

The driver Charquon Barrett does not have a valid driver license.

Police beat

Timothy Clark, 50, Grimes Road Loudon, was charged with, Domestic Assault.

Deputy Brockwell LCSO, arrived at Grimes Road for a domestic in progress. Before the deputy arrived on scene dispatch notified me that the victim/complainant, advised that her husband/offender, Timothy Clark, was loading and unloading a gun stating "watch what I'm going to do next" after being served divorce papers. When the deputy arrived on scene, Timothy was sitting on the front porch and placed his hands on head to show that he did not have any weapons. When the deputy asked Timothy what happened, he stated that his wife, the victim served him with divorce papers and that he was very pissed off and seemed like his life was over but could not clarify what he meant by that. He also stated that he did have a gun and was loading it but placed it back in the garage. The deputy then talked to the victim, and she stated that she served her husband with divorce papers, and he got very upset and went into the garage and grabbed a gun stating, "watch what's going to happen and watch what is going to happen next" and that she was in fear for life. The victim stated that he said all of this while he had a gun in his hand and started loading it and that's when she called the cops. When the deputy asked the victim if she had access to the gun, she stated that she would have to find the key as she was informed that the firearm used would need to be taken for evidence. Timothy was placed under arrest for domestic assault (aggravated) and transported to the Loudon County Detention Facility. The deputy called the victim and asked if she found the firearm in which she stated that she did and told me to come by the address to retrieve it. At 2246 the deputy arrived back at Grimes Road to retrieve the firearm that was used (Sig Sauer P220 Serial #G425170) and placed it into evidence. This did happen in Loudon County, TN without further incident.

Subcommittee and Transportation Subcommittee.

Lowell Russell represents District 21 which includes part of Loudon and Monroe Counties.

Police beat

Sade Wesley, 37, Homeless Loudon, was charged with Disorderly Conduct.

Deputy Brockwell LCSO, responded to Hines Valley Road for a trespasser call. Prior to arrival, dispatch notified the deputy that there was a heated verbal altercation between the offender, Sade Wesley, and the complainant/victim. When the deputy arrived on scene he observed and heard Wesley screaming and yelling at the property owners. When the deputy tried to deescalate Wesley, she turned towards him and started cussing at the deputy. The deputy then tried to calm Wesley down a second time, but she kept yelling over him when the deputy was trying to speak. Based on Wesley's behavior, the deputy placed her under arrest for disorderly conduct due to her causing a disturbance. The deputy then spoke to the victim, and he stated that he invited some family over to dinner and when they got there around 1600 Wesley was not on their property. When the people he invited left, around 1930, they observed Wesley putting a tent up right next to their driveway. They confronted Wesley about being on their property and advised her to leave because she was on their property. Wesley started becoming irate and told them she could put a tent wherever she wanted to because she knows the law. Wesley was then transported to the Loudon County Detention Facility along with her numerous items. This did happen in Loudon County, TN without further incident.

Horoscopes

uncomfortable.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Today you could put a lot of energy into mundane chores and tasks, as you won't want them hanging over your head and interfering with your evening plans. As a result, Pisces, you might feel very stressed and your temper could be a bit short.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You might be planning or leaving on a much-needed vacation now, and feeling very excited about it. Plans should go smoothly, Aries, so you're apt to get everything together with few glitches. Friends in distant places might ask you to visit or be planning visits of their own.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Ambitious plans for your future could necessitate your giving a lot of attention to practical matters, such as finances. This could be a drag, Taurus, but if you're serious about your ideas, it needs to be done. A friend, probably a man, could pitch in and help you make sense of everything. Don't try to get it all done today. Your mind could get overloaded, which might discourage you.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

The coming days promise a busy social time, Gemini. You might host a party at your home. You may feel terribly rushed and wonder if you will be able to get everything done. Don't worry. It will all come out all right. Friends or family members could prove invaluable in lending assistance.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Your energy level should be high today, Cancer, so you're going to feel restless and spend most of your time out and about. There might be some chores you need to get done at home, but family members should help and you're apt to finish them all quickly. Paperwork might need to be completed, which could be the slowest of all your tasks.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You may be looking forward to an evening with close friends, Leo, probably including a romantic partner. Occasions such as sporting events, movies, or concerts could be on your agenda. Activities involving children are also possible. Don't be surprised if you're inclined to sit quietly and let others do the talking. You might have a lot on your mind and need to let it stew for a while.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Members of your household may feel a bit restless today, and therefore might spend most of their time out and about. You might take advantage of everyone's absence to catch up on work you need to do alone, Virgo. This is going to be a busy day with lots of outside contact.

Libra 9/23-10/22
Your neighborhood is likely buzzing with activity today, Libra. New neighbors could move in, improvements could be made, and new businesses could open their doors. Expect a lot of visitors and calls. A man with a child could play a big role in these events. At some point you might decide to walk down the street and check out what's happening.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

The promise of possible financial advancement could cause you to plunge into a lot of paperwork today. This could be related to a job, Scorpio, or it might involve a personal project that you've been working on. You might get so caught up in what you're doing that you lose your ability to focus and get too frazzled to finish.

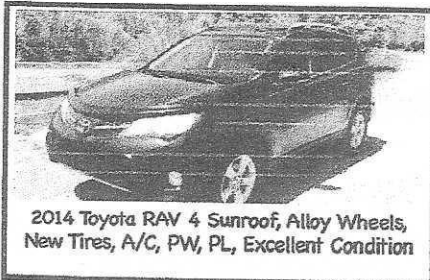

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Your physical energy is likely to be very high today, and you might want to spend most of your time out and about, probably in the company of others. You may attend a concert this evening or some other kind of entertainment that you really enjoy.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

This is a good day to spend some time alone, Capricorn. You may have projects you want to finish, and you have the energy to get a lot done. You could feel restless, but socializing might not be a good idea.
