Dustin Shirk, 38, Babbs Road Lenoir City, was charged with, Reckless Endangerment, Domestic Assault, and Public Intoxication.

Deputy Allen LCSO, arrived at Shaw Ferry Road to investigate a vehicle fire. While the deputy was responding, Dispatch informed him that the complainant/victim who advised her son Dustin Shirk had poured gasoline on his vehicle and lit it on fire. As the deputy arrived he found Mr. Shirk using a garden house to spray water on his vehicle that was fully engulfed in flames. The vehicle was approximately five yards from the side of the family home. It was in the driveway of the residence in a residential area. Mr. Shirk readily admitted he had lit his vehicle on fire. He states he lit it on fire because the interlock device had caused his mother to become addicted to crack. Mr. Shirk had a strong smell of alcoholic beverages coming from his breath and admitted to drinking and smoking marijuana today. It was readily apparent that Mr. Shirk was under the influence of some form of intoxicant and posed a danger to himself and others. Sergeant Pesterfield was able to make contact with the victim. She states that she was asleep in bed when her son woke her up being loud and threatening. They had then argued and Mr. Shirk raised his fist to her and caused her to fear for her safety. Mr. Shirk left the victim room he then sent her a text stating he had lit his car on fire. The deputy placed Mr. Shirk under arrest at this time without incident. Mr. Shirk was transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur in Loudon County TN.

Brittany Van Der Veen, 31, Cruze Drive Lenoir City, was charged with, Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. II. and Poss. of Drug Para.

Officer R. Miller, with the Lenoir City Police Department, was in the area near the intersection of Shaw Ferry Road at Town Creek Road East. While in the area the officer observed a red Nissan pickup truck disregard a posted stop sign by not coming to a complete stop at the four way stop intersection located at Town Creek Road East and Shaw Ferry Road. The officer then initiated a traffic stop on the Nissan pickup truck where it continued until it pulled into the driveway on Shaw Ferry Road located in Lenoir City, TN. Upon the traffic stop the driver who was identified as Kenneth Collins quickly exited and walked to rear of the truck where the officer met with him, while the female passenger remained in the passenger seat of the truck, the female was identified as Brittany Van Der Veen.

Both subjects showed signs of being physically nervous during the traffic stop. During the traffic stop, COLLINS could not provide a driver's license and stated that he did not have a valid license. Central dispatch advised that COLLINS was showing to have a revoked license status out of the state of Tennessee. While speaking with both COLLINS and VAN DER VEEN the officer received verbal consent to search the pickup truck. The officer was advised prior to his search of the truck that they both had hypodermic needles inside of a black bag which was contained inside of a larger blue bag. Verbal consent to search the black bag that contained the hypodermic needles was granted where the officer located a white container that had a small bag containing a gray/white powder like substance believed to be fentanyl (approx. 0.54 grams) along with two cut straws that contained a gray/white powder like residue inside of them. Both COLLINS and VAN DER VEEN were mirandized where both stated that they did not know that the bag containing the gray/white powdery substance believed to be fentanyl was inside of the black bag.

Investigators concluded that Webster was working as a counselor for both Persevere in Memphis and Eagles Nest Services in Jackson at the same time.

Webster improperly received at least $17,239.63 in unearned wages and employer-paid benefits from Persevere. Investigators determined that Webster claimed to be working for both non-profits simultaneously for 469 hours, a practice called double-dipping.

Both Persevere and Eagles Nest requested and received salary reimbursements for Webster using TANF grant funds. Furthermore, investigators reviewed Webster's case files for his mental health clients and discovered that he did not maintain any documentation to substantiate that he performed any work for Persevere.

Based upon this investigation, in April 2024, Broderick Webster was indicted by the Shelby County Grand Jury for one count of theft of property over $10,000.

Horoscopes

stay calm and phone friends, colleagues, and anyone who might know where this person is. All is probably well.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

A sibling or neighbor might not feel very communicative, Taurus. It may seem that this person isn't behaving in their normal, friendly manner, but isn't sharing why. Give him or her a break.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Are you working on a project that requires a little ingenuity? If so, today you may draw a blank. No matter how hard you think about it, you can't come up with a good way to proceed.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Your intuition is operating at a very high level, Cancer, except where your family is concerned! No matter how hard you try, you can't seem to make sense of anything anyone says, let alone does. Don't make yourself crazy over it.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Telepathic messages you get from a friend or relative could seem confused and garbled, Leo. This might bother you, especially if the person is normally practical and rational. We all have bad days. Try to observe their behavior and see if there are any warning signs of inner or outer crisis. If not, you may have to just let them be.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Are you upset over money, Virgo? Try to be rational. Your concerns are probably far more negative than the reality of the situation. Be objective and go over your budget to learn the facts. By the time you cover everything, you should be more than relieved.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Some news about a major event could unsettle and confuse you, Libra. There could be contradictory reports, and commentators may confound the issue even more. You're primarily concerned about how this will affect you. The answer is probably very little. The media are apt to blow it out of proportion because it's newsworthy. The truth will come out in a few days. Hang in there!

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Spiritual studies might seem fascinating and confusing, Scorpio. Are you reading a book whose author isn't clear? Perhaps this isn't the best work to bring you the information you seek. Ask friends to recommend better books.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Your intuition may guide you in a direction that seems at odds with what logic and practicality tell you, Sagittarius. This could put you in a quandary. Should you try to be practical or should you follow your heart? Don't make the decision today.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Family problems may have a friend or love partner feeling unsettled and helpless,

Capricorn. This person could have a few communication problems, especially if firmness is required. Don't get sucked into the situation.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Has someone given you a chore to do and then taken off without giving you any instructions? It's no wonder you feel confused and frustrated! If there is no manual, and if no one else knows what's up, don't feel bad about letting it go until you're given proper coaching. It's more prudent to wait than do it wrong and have to do it again. Better safe than sorry.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Staying indoors might not be the best thing today, Pisces. You might feel vague muscular aches and pains for which you can't find any reason. They could be the result of inactivity rather than any dysfunction. Get outside and go for a walk or jog in the park. This will get the endorphins going and wipe away the memory of how you felt earlier.
